Freight Cars Go Up in Smoke

LONG LINES of freight cars burn in Canadian National Railway's Bonaventure freight yards, Montreal, following a series of explosions Monday. Termed Montreal's worst fire in recent years, two sheds and 130 freight cars and their contents were a total loss.

City Council To Consider Wage Boost

Increases For Two Civic Unions Are Recommended

Wage increases totalling approximately $100,000, and affecting two groups of civic employes, will be recommended by city commissioners to a special meeting of city council this afternoon.

A ten cents an hour increase for all transit system workers, retroactive to August 16, is recommended.

SIMILAR INCREASE

A similar increase is recommended for members of Civic Union No 30.

The proposed increase for transit workers will cost an additional $44,000 on 1948 operations, and the increase for Union 30 workers will increase expenditures by $55,000.

The increases are based on the up-swing in living costs since agreements with these unions were negotiated in the fall of 1947.

If granted, the increases will be in the form of a cost of living bonus, and will be subject to increase or decrease, based on the rise or fall of the Edmonton living cost index which has been estimated at 155.

$10 MONTHLY RAISE

Recently members of Civic Union No. 52 were granted a $10 monthly increase to meet increased living costs. This increase was retroactive to January 1 last.

Membership of Civic Union No. 30 includes workers in the waterworks and city engineer's department, the parks branch, airport, city garage and some other outside workers.

Higher Fares Likely On City Trams, Buses

Big Deficits Will Push Rates Upward

Transit system's fare rates will be increased in the near future; or in the alternative an estimated deficit of $330,000 on 1949 operations will have to be absorbed in the mill rate.

The new fare rate probably will be three tickets for 25 cents and 14 for one dollar.

The present fare rate is four tickets for 25 cents, and 17 for one dollar.

Deficit resulting from increased operational costs are cause of the contemplated fare increase.

SPECIAL COUNCIL MEET

City commissioners will outline the financial position of the system at a special meeting of city council this afternoon.

They will make no specific recommendation for fare increases at this meeting, but will suggest that increases must be made in the near future.

They will recommend that pay increases of 10 cents an hour be granted to all employes of the transit system to meet living-cost increases since wage agreements were signed with transit workers late in 1947.

The wage increase, if approved by city council, will be retroactive to August 16, and will cost approximately $44,000 up to the end of this year.

1948 LOSS $180,000

As the 1948 budget for the system was based on a deficit of $133,123 this wage increase will result in a deficit on operation this year of $180,000.

The deficit on the first seven months of operation this year was $81,077.83. If patronage continues as expected the deficit as budgeted will not be exceeded.

Estimated expenditures in 1949 will exceed those of 1948 by $300,000.

Revenue in 1949, on the present fare structure, will exceed that of 1948 by approximately $100,000.

This means an increase in the deficit of $200,000, or an ovrall deficit for 1949 of $333,000.

On the basis of these figures it is claimed that fare rates will have to be increased in the near fuure.

City commissioners are of the opinion the other civic utilities cannot carry this deficit.

They agree also that it should not be incorporated into the mill rate.

WOULD BOOST REVENUE

They estimate that the sale of tickets at 14 for $1 would increase revenue by $300,000. This would still leave a deficit, of more than $30,000 on 1949 operations.

Estimated increased expenditures in 1949 are: wages, $125,000; capital charges, and reserves against 1948 capital expenditures, $87,000, and miscellaneous increases, $88,000.

Commissioner D. B. Menzies will report to council that private transit companies in Montreal and Winnipeg are presently requesting authorization to sell tickets at three for 25 cents.

Vancouver is now charging this rate.

Communists Demand 9-Man Group to Rule Berlin

By Walter Rundle

BERLIN, Aug. 27.—(BUP)—Communist leaders demanded that a special nine-man commission be set up to rule Berlin today after 4,000 demonstrators broke up the second scheduled meeting of the city assembly within 20 hours.

The scheduled assembly meeting was postponed indefinitely when Communist action squads smashed down iron gates and stormed into the city hall, threatening to break down inner doors with a battering ram.

More than 1,800 of them jammed the city assembly chamber, which has a capacity of 150, to hear a speech by Karl Littke, Communist leader, in the city assembly.

RESIGNATION DEMANDED

Litke ridiculed the city assembly for calling off the meeting and demanded that it resign to make way for a special nine-man commission of "Berlin citizens" to operate the city administration.

The Communists hold only 26 of 130 seats in the city assembly.

Litke told the demonstrators, mostly workers from Soviet sector factories who were let off work for the day, that Soviet zone currency was the only one they should accept for their labors.

He said any plant that tried to pay off in western marks would be closed down. He urged the workers to strike rather than accept western marks.

ANOTHER DEMONSTRATION

Communist leaders were reported to have called for another demonstration later today in Potsdamer Platz, where the American, British and Russian sectors meet.

Acting Mayor Ferdinand Friedensburg immediately alerted all police in the three western sectors against Communist efforts to provoke incidents similar to the reign of terror and kidnappings last weekend.

More than 4,000 well organized demonstrators stormed the city hall this morning within 45 minutes after Karl Littke, Communist leader in the assembly, called for new demonstrations against the city government.

GATES SMASHED

They smashed down the gates in front of the building and broke the lock on a rear door. Once inside, they threatened to break down inner doors with a battering ram. Assembly leaders then postponed the meeting indefinitely.

The demonstrators then began drifting away from the city hall toward the center of town, where Potsdamer Platz is situated. Word reached city officials that factories throughout the Soviet sector of Berlin had been closed and the workers instructed to join in the demonstrations.

Envoys Silent After Talks

MOSCOW, Aug. 27.—(CP)—The three western envoys conferred with Foreign Minister Molotov for about two hours and 55 minutes tonight on one German crisis.

The envoys motored from the Kremlin to the British embassy, just across the Moscow river.

W. Bedell Smith, United States ambassador, said:

"There will be no communique tonight."

Smith said Andrei Y. Vishinsky, Soviet deputy foreign minister and former Soviet delegate to the United Nations, sat in on the conference. This was the first time Vishinsky has entered the four power talks here. His last major assignment was leading the Soviet delegation at the Danube River conference in Belgrade.

It may not be significant, but Smith never smiled once in his encounter with newspaper men. He has not looked so solemn in public in a long time.

Judge Hints At Rent Control End

OTTAWA, Aug. 27.—(CP)—Judge A. E. Doak of the prices board's rentals court here said in court today it was "the general opinion all across the country—that rentals regulations will end next March 31.

That is the end of the current dominion fiscal year and the date on which existing rentals controls will expire unless they are extended. The government has not announced whether it plans to continue the controls.

Judge Doak said his opinion was not based on fact, but he added: "The government is anxious to get out of the rentals business, I guess."

CAMERA STOLEN

Photos By Bland Gone By Thief

The Edmonton Bulletin's camera which has been used to bring Bulletin readers on-the-spot picture coverage of news events was stolen Thursday.

Bulletin Staff Photographer Erie Bland reported to police that the camera was taken from his locked automobile parked on Jasper Avenue near 98 street. The machine is valued at $500.

City police are making a check of city second hand stores in the event that the camera has been disposed of by the thief.

The camera contained undeveloped pictures of Mrs. Anna Anholt, "The Loveliest Mother".

But the thief did not thwart Bland's coverage of "Mom" Anholt. Bland merely went to work again, took pictures which appear on Page 13.

43 Will Die In Yugoslavia

BELGRADE, Aug. 27.—(BUP)—Forty-three persons were sentenced to death at Zagreb today in Yugoslavia's largest post-war mass trial of alleged war criminals.

Eighteen of them were sentenced to be hanged for terrorism and espionage. Other death sentences will be carried out by firing squads.

Two other of the 55 persons tried were sentenced to life imprisonment, and all the remainder were found guilty and given prison terms of 15 to 20 years.

Further Road Grant Okayed

Alberta cabinet approval was given this week to a million dollar addition to the $15,000,000 legislative appropriation for the department of public works, it was learned today.

Government spokesmen said the special warrants might not necessarily be expended, but were required to cover coats of contracts already issued or contemplated for road construction.

If an early freeze-up halts construction work soon, the funds thus appropriated will certainly not be expended.

However if the season should remain open contractors will have time to complete their contracts and the new funds supplied will be available.

First session of the new Alberta legislature will be called upon when considering estimates to give approval to all such special warrants.

With the government's large majority in the 11th legislature, such approval is expected to be automatic.

Treason Case Against 'Axis Sally' Outlined

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27.—(BUP)—The justice department today began outlining to a federal grand jury its treason case against Mildred Elizabeth Gillars, wartime "Axis Sally" of the Nazi radio.

The 47-year-old, Maine-born spinster was arraingned on the treason charge after arriving here under guard from Frankfurt, Germany last Saturday. She made no plea at that time.

Meanwhile, attorneys for Miss Gillars have asked federal court here to rule that the treason charge against her is illegal.

John M. Kelly, Jr., special assistant to the attorney general, outlined the treason charges against Miss Gillars at an hour-long grand jury session.

DETAILED EVIDENCE

It was learned that Kelly will present detailed evidence and a number of witnesses against the one-time German radio broadcaster next week.

Witnesses called today were two members of the plane crew which flew Miss Gillars here from Germany last Saturday. They were called to establish that Washington was the plane's first stop in the United States.

The government has promised that Miss Gillars will receive a speedy trial if an indictment is returned by the grand jury. She is accused of using her broadcasts over the Nazi radio to stir up discontent among the U. S. troops overseas by belittling the American effort and telling them they were "fighting a Jewish war."

Mrs. Anna Mae Herrick of Conneaut, O., whom the justice department believes to be a half-sister of Miss Gillars, already has arrived here under subpoena. She probably will appear before the jury next week.

BORN IN MAINE

Miss Gillars, who says she has no relatives in this country, was born at Portland, Me., in 1900. She was granted a passport in 1929 to study in Paris. She later obtained another passport from the U.S. consul in Algiers and went to Germany in 1934.

Hot, Humid Weather Sizzles Ont., Quebec

By The Canadian Press

Canadians in the central provinces are beginning to realize how deadly three little words can be from the lips of the weather forecaster.

"Hot and humid" was the prediction again for Friday and residents of southern Ontario and Quebec took what comfort they could from the fact the maximum are likely to be a little lower than Thursday's sizzlers.

With tops in the high 90s on Thursday for the second straight day, forecasts indicate continuing temperatures in the low and middle 90s.

BETTER ELSEWHERE

Meanwhile, the western provinces and the Maritimes had normal readings and the northern areas of Canada were preparing for temperatures near the freezing point.

In southern Ontario, where highs Friday are expected to average 92, Brampton reported its first heat victim. Ann Hackett, 15 months, died on the way to hospital of convulsions her doctor said were caused by the heat.

LOCKED IN DEATH STRUGGLE

Spider, Snake Battle —And Spider's Winning

CHICAGO, Aug. 27.—(AP)—A spider and a snake were locked in a death struggle today with the spider holding the upper hand.

The small, light greenish spider—about the size of a nickel already had the eight-inch garter snake trussed in a web and off the floor.

Norman B. Lingenfelter, 48-year-old poultry farmer, said he wouldn't interfere.

"I'm going to let the law of the jungle take its course," he said.

Lingenfelter said he first noticed the snake caught by its tail in the spider web Wednesday morning.

The web was attached to a low shelf in a utility room of the Lingenfelter home in York Center, an unincorporated village near suburban Villa Park.

"I don't know how long the spider has had hold of the snake or how it was able to snare the snake. Some zoologists who came out here can't explain it either," he said.

Lingenfelter said that in a period of several hours yesterday, the spider managed to spin its web in such a way as to hold the snake from a vertical to a horizontal position, four or five inches off the floor. "It looks like it's in a hammock now," he said.

Zoologists described the spider as a "house spider," he said.

Mrs. Anholt has been deluged by congratulatory phone calls and letters from well-wishers throughout Edmonton. She is now putting final touches to her preparations for the Hollywood trip on which she embarks at 12:45 noon Sunday from Edmonton airport.

New death from the disease boosts the number of deaths from polio to seven for this year.

Pretender to Spanish Throne Meets Franco

SAN SEBASTIAN, Spain, Aug. 27.—(AP)—Monarchist informants said today Don Juan, pretender to the Spanish throne, conferred for three hours Wednesday with Francisco Franco, Spanish chief of state. It would be the first meeting between the two since the pretender put forward his claim to the throne.

The informants said the conference took place aboard Franco's yacht in the Bay of Biscay. Whether Don Juan's return to the Spanish throne was discussed could not be learned.

Last year the Spanish cortes (parliament) approved a "law of succession" making Spain "traditionally a kingdom" and naming Franco chief of state for life. The law also gave Franco the right to choose his successor if he decides to retire before his death.

The Spanish throne has been vacant since 1931 when Don Juan's father, King Alfonso XIII, relinquished it. Alfonso died in 1941.

The new law of succession prescribes certain qualifications for Franco's successor, all of which are met by Don Juan.

Reports, current for several years said Franco desired that Don Juan eventually ascend the throne, but under conditions unacceptable to the pretender.

Prosecution Of Union Granted

TORONTO, Aug. 27.—(CP)—The Ontario labor relations board granted permission today for McKinnon Industries Ltd., St. Catharines, Ont., to prosecute Local 199, United Auto Workers, (CIO) collective bargaining agents for McKinnon employes.

PETITION DISMISSED

A second petition, asking permission to prosecute 10 members of the local was dismissed. The company will prosecute the union on grounds that a strike of 2,650 employes last July 14 is illegal.

The union contended that a trade union is not a legal entity and may not be prosecuted. The board ruled that labor regulations make unions subject to prosecution for infractions of the labor code.

In St. Catharines the UAW warned General Motors of Canada they will stop handling automobile parts imported from the United States if the strike at McKinnon Industries is not settled soon.

General Motors is importing parts to replace those ordinarily manufactured at the plant here, a GM subsidiary.

The employes went on strike to enforce demands for a 26-cent an hour wage increase. The company offered a 10-cent increase.

Hot Week-End Ahead In States

CHICAGO, Aug. 27.—(AP)—A week-end of hot, muggy weather, good for the growing crops but horrible for humans, appears in prospect for most of the United States.

Forecasters said they could see no break in the hottest weather of the summer season. They said temperatures, which have ranged in the 90's to above 100 over the heat belt in the United States and southern Canada, may drop a few degrees in some areas. But rising humidity has brought even more discomfort to the sweltering millions.

COVERS WIDE AREA

"Hot and humid," was the forecast for most of the heat-stricken states.

Yesterday's hottest weather extended along the Ohio River valley through Indiana, Ohio, Kentucky and northward. Generally, weather bureau forecasters said, the mercury was around the 100-degree mark. Seattle's 72 was the coolest for the day.

There is some cool air in northwest Canada, forecasters said, but it is slow in moving south.

The continued hot weather yesterday prompted early quitting of work at factories in some cities.

RECORDS BROKEN

There were several official marks of 100 and above yesterday. The bureau in New York said the official high was 100.8, the second highest in history. But at La Guardia airport the thermometer went even higher—to 102.8.

Baltimore's 101 was the hottest day in eight years and a record for the date. Philadelphia wilted under a blistering 101.2.

Chicago's 96 broke a 75-year record for Aug. 26 and marked the fifth consecutive 90-plus day.

Diefenbaker Gives 7-Point Program

Tory Attacks Liberals, CCF; Defends Free Enterprise

WINNIPEG, Aug. 27.—(CP)—John G. Diefenbaker, Progressive Conservative member of parliament for Lake Centre, Sask., and mentioned as a strong candidate for the party leadership, has outlined a seven-point program for consideration at the party's national convention next month.

The program was given last night during a 60-minute address here in which Mr. Diefenbaker attacked the policies of Liberal and CCF parties, attached importance to continuance of the free enterprise system and lashed out at Communists.

7-POINT PROGRAM

His seven points were:

1. Reduction of all controllable expenditures by government and curbing the power of bureaucrats to direct parliament in what it should do with the national income.

2. Reduction of taxes . . . increased income tax exemption and lower income tax rates.

3. Encouragement of farm production by allowing farmers an income tax reduction to allow for work done by women and children.

4. Removal of the sales tax in whole insofar as it affects necessities and reduction in other cases.

5. End of the austerity program allowing people to import what goods they want.

6. Removal of the artificial parity of the Canadian dollar.

7. Restoration of freedom of marketing by giving the farmer an alternative right to a non-compulsory market, and restoring the Wheat Board to its original functions.

Another Change In France Expected

PARIS, Aug. 27.—(AP)—Informed foreign sources in Paris look for France to make another change in the franc soon. They say it is expected France will establish a single rate of 324 francs to the dollar, replacing the present 305 francs official free market and 214 on the controlled.

Fire Destroys Small Store

One small store was gutted by fire and three others damaged by smoke and water as a result of a blaze at 94 street and 118 avenue Thursday night.

About $3,000 damage was done to the single-storey frame block which houses four small stores.

The blaze is believed to have spread from a gas heater in the living quarters at the rear of the corner store, Ernie's Grocery, 9405 118 avenue.

PROPRIETOR OUT

Proprietor of the shop, M. Johnson, had left the premises to visit friends about two hours before the blaze started. His wife was out on the city at the time.

Stock and fixtures at Ernie's Grocery were destroyed, and walls and roof of the building were badly charred.

White's Meat Market, adjacent to the grocery, and Harry's Grocery at 9409 118 avenue, operated by John Polloway were damaged by smoke and water.

Lindsay's Sporting Goods, fourth store in the block, was damaged by smoke.

TRAFFIC HELD UP

Firemen from halls 5 and 7 laid three lines of hose to bring the fire under control, tapping it out shortly before midnight after an hour and a half's work.

Fire fighting equipment occupying the street in front of the building held up street car traffic for some time.

The building is owned by the Royal Trust Company and is partly covered by insurance.

Sailor Is Cleared In Coast Murder

VANCOUVER, Aug. 27.—(CP)—Hope of early freedom for Elmer E. Johnson, 25-year-old baker, now serving a 12-year penitentiary sentence, vanished yesterday with a police report from Los Angeles.

Reports that a United States sailor might be implicated in the slaying of Mrs. Nora Burton for whose death Johnson is serving a manslaughter sentence, were ruled out by authorities here.

A police report said documentary evidence showed that the sailor was in another city when Mrs. Burton was slain in her rooming house in Stanley Park, June 22, 1947.

The log of a U.S. marine company showed the sailor was in Seattle when the slaying occurred.

"The police are satisfied the sailor had nothing to do with the death," said Supt. Charles Spencer of the criminal investigation bureau.

At the trial of Johnson, medical evidence showed Mrs. Burton died of asphyxiation.

Silver Hawks In Cycle Jaunt

Members of the recently organized Silver Hawks Cycle Club will have their bikes geared for speed come September 6. On that day they'll stage a 30-mile race over a route which touches Spruce Grove and finishes at the Government House.

Starting point for the distance is 124 street and 102 avenue.

This Labor Day race will be the first of its kind since 1941, and is the forerunner of bikes to such faraway points as Red Deer and Calgary. Among the 12 entries received thus far are Leo Campbell, Jim Purdy, Ted Clegg, Marvin Johnson from New Zealand, Doug Overton, Roger Wilson, and Bruce Wilson.

NEWSMAN GETS EGG, WAITRESS FOR PHOTO STUNT

MONTREAL, Aug. 27.—The Montreal Star yesterday tried an old hot weather stunt. It sent out a reporter to try to boil an egg in the fountain on Place D'Armes in the downtown district.

Did he succeed?

Well, the Star reported that a lunch room proprietor sent them a note which read:

"Dear Mr. Editor:

"A few hours ago a reporter belonging to you borrowed an egg. He said he would return it undamaged in 30 minutes. Four hours have gone by. Tell him he can keep the egg if only he will return the waitress he similarly 'borrowed' to help him get the picture."

Grain Storage Short in U.S.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27.—(AP)—A serious shortage of grain storage space threatens American farmers with the loss of several hundred million dollars in income this year.

The United States agricultural department estimates the storage shortage at upwards of 1,000,000,000 bushels. It is most acute in the corn belt, where a stupendous crop of 3,500,000,000 bushels of this grain alone is nearing the harvest stage.

LOSS FROM DETERIORATION

Officials said farmers are likely to suffer losses from deterioration of grain and a drop in market prices below levels promised by the government's support program.

A farmer can get the benefit of the support program for grain only if he has it stored safely. This help is in the form of loans and agreements to buy the grain next year.

If he cannot get commercial storage or does not have available facilities on his farm, the grower is out of luck as far as price support aid is concerned.

ONLY ALTERNATIVE

His only alternative may be to sell his grain on the market at a price below the support level. Some grain experts predict corn soon will sell from 15 to 25 cents a bushel below the support price of about $1.45 a bushel.

The vastness of the storage problem can be measured by the fact that this year's indicated production of grains is 1,250,000,000 bushels larger than last year and 1,275,000,000 larger than the average for the last 10 years.

And the building of storage facilities has not kept pace with the sharp gain in production.

Lots of Fun Today As Two Kiddies Games Listed

Today The Bulletin presents two games to keep children occupied at home during the present poliomyelitis ban on youngsters under 16 years of age.

This is another in a series of "keep-busy" ideas for the kiddies written by Miss Sydney Fleet, supervisor of handicrafts for the City Recreation Commission.

First game today is fun for the whole family. Try it after supper tonight.

Let Dad take the first letter of the alphabet, A. He says something like, "My name is Adam. I come from Africa, and I eat acorns." You see, his name, where he comes from, and what he eats all start with an A.

MOM IN TOO

Maybe Mom will take letter B if she isn't too busy doing the dishes. She might say, "My name is Barbara, I come from Brazil, and I eat buns."

Perhaps you can get four or five kids from your neighborhood to play the game with you.

Have them keep going as fast as you can. The game is more fun that way.

And wait until you get to the hard letters of the alphabet, like X, Y and Z!

Second game for today is called Fun With Wax.

See if you can get from Mother any old candle ends, because we're going to make fancy candles. Get some cookie cutters for a mold, and an old pie plate, or tin pan to put them on.

Find an old tin can and put your candle ends in it. Be sure they are all the same color. Put the tin can on the stove and melt the candle ends.

Put the cookie cutter on the tin plate, and get some heavy string for a wick. Or maybe you can use the wick from the candle ends you just melted.

When the candle ends have melted, take a pot-holder or heavy mitt and lift up the tin can—remember, it's hot.

Pour a thin layer of wax into the cookie cutter and let it harden. This sticks the cookie cutter onto the tin plate. When it's good and stuck, take your piece of string (the piece you are going to use for a wick) and hold it straight up and down, right in the middle.

FANCY CANDLE

If you need both hands to pour, get one of the other kids to hold it.

Then pour more wax into the cookie cutter, (really slowly) still holding the wick, until the wax comes to the top of the cutter.

When the wax hardens, you can slip the cookie cutter off, and you have a fancy candle.

AFU Protest Freight Rate Structure

A concerted campaign by the Alberta Farmers' Union and the United Farmers of Canada (Saskatchewan Branch) against "excessive and unwarranted" freight rates was the decision of an AFU executive meeting Thursday.

In an interview with the Bulletin, AFU secretary Robert J. Boutillier revealed that the inter-provincial protest over the recent 21 per cent freight rate increase would begin "almost immediately."

Immediate plans include distribution of 10,000 leaflets, by mail and personal distribution by executive members, and protest meetings throughout Alberta.

Leaflets, as well as meeting addresses, will outline reasons for "unjustified demands of further profits by the railway companies," Boutillier said.

He said that plans of the UFC in Saskatchewan, to hold demonstrations of placard-bearing members, will be closely studied, and perhaps followed by his organization.

UFC plan is to picket freight stations with signs that state "pertinent facts" in regard to freight-rate structure.

"Should these demonstrations prove to be practicable," Boutillier said, "then the AFU will take similar action in Alberta."

He termed the now-pending 15 percent increase of Canadian railways as "completely uncalled for."

Debris Causes Train Delay

Flood swoolen waters of the Summit river delayed Canadian National trans-continental trains Thursday and early Friday.

E. G. Skelding, superintendent of transportation for the CNR, said today delays were caused when floating debris was trapped by the bridge.

Waters of the river, he said, piled debris on the bridge to a depth of five feet and weakened approaches, but the bridge held.

Service over the line is expected to be restored by noon today.

In the meantime, CN trains were rerouted over the CPR tracks.

Alberta Crop Report Shows Much Activity

Harvesting, although delayed in many points by rains, is now general throughout most of Alberta, Manitoba and Saskatchewan, according to crop reports issued today by the CN and CP railways.

Cutting became general in southern Alberta, and was started throughout numerous areas in the central and south-central parts of the province, during the past week.

Some shortage of farm labor is reported developing, but machinery appears to be in better supply than for several years.

Examples of yields of wheat at various points where harvesting is under way are Chin, 40 bushels per acre; Warner, 32; Turin, 30; Purple Springs and Enchant, 20; Empress 10 and Hilda, 8.

FIRST FROST

First report of night frost have been reported from the Peace River, but no damage is yet indicated and all crops are said to be in good condition.

In Saskatchewan, harvesting has made substantial headway during the week with 25 per cent of the wheat crop, and 27 per cent of oats and barley reported harvested.

In the south, west-central and central parts of the province, harvesting of up to 75 per cent of wheat and 100 per cent of oats and barley has been completed.

Yields throughout the province range from 35 to eight bushels per acre, with 100 per cent hail damage to 2,000 acres in the Arcola subdivision reported.

MANITOBA LAGS

Cutting in Manitoba is now about 17 per cent behind the total at the same date last year, with 37 per cent harvested.

Threshing and combining have not yet started in the north-west areas of Manitoba, but over the province as a whole, approximately six per cent of wheat has been threshed and eight per cent of oats and barley.

Wheat is running 35 bushels per acre at Brookdale, 25 to 35 at Winnipeg Beach; 28 at Teulon; 20 to 25 at Crystal City and 20 at Medora and Goodlands.

Big Oil Hunt Is On As Crews Go North

Twenty Companies Move Into Athabasca Lands

By Cecil Jackman

Boats loaded with crews are floating down the Athabasca river, on the start of the biggest single geophysical exploration enterprise in Alberta's history.

They are commencing the gigantic task of exploring the 4,000,000 acre reservation, in which 20 companies participated, with 200,000 acres each.

Word of the big project was announced here Wednesday by the provincial government.

The reserved land forms a shoe-string down the Athabasca river to Waterways, and back along the railway to Lac La Biche. The reservation does not include tar sand leases which come into a special category.

WORKING DOWN

Three Universal Geophysical Corporation crews are working down the river from Athabasca by boat.

In this way, hard and tedious labor, involved in dragging equipment through thick bush, is avoided. The strip along the railway will be worked from the rail right-of-way.

The whole project is based on the belief that pools of liquid oil exist near the tar sand outcroppings along the Athabasca river.

Various theories have been advanced about the origin of the oil that seeps in the tar sands the greatest concentration of hydrocarbons in the world.

One of these theories is that the oil is the result of a seepage that has come to the surface along the edge of an escarpment.

If this is the case, great quantities of oil may still be free in the pool from which the seepage took place.

HOOVER HEADS

If favorable indications are found by the crew in an area along the river, on the way downstream, and in an area along the railway on the return trip, the territory between the two points will be reserved and thoroughly explored.

Complete exploration will "be carried out by Universal Geophysical Corporation, of which the president, Herbert Hoover, Jr., was in Edmonton last week.

Geologist in charge of the project is Dr. T. A. Link, formerly of Imperial Oil, and now an independent consulting geologist.

Capital to finance the project comes from as far away as Pittsburgh and California.

Arctic Tour Planned By Boy Scouts

Boy Scout and Girl Guide troops along Canada's Arctic rim will be visited next month by Alberta leaders.

H. B. Holloway, executive commissioner of the Alberta Boy Scouts Association, and Miss Beth Riddoch, Calgary, field secretary of the Alberta Girl Guides Association, will leave Edmonton on Sept. 13 on an aerial tour of the far north.

200 VISITS

The Scout and Guide leaders plan visits to more than 200 Scouts and Guides already functioning in four established northland groups. In addition they will fly to several remote posts to establish new Scout and Guide troops.

The trip will be made in a specially chartered Associated Airways Stinson plane.

The officials expect to be away at least two weeks.

ESKIMO CAMP

A unique feature of the tour will be the visit to the all-Eskimo, scout and guide group at far-away Tuktoyaktuk.

Places to be visited where there are already scout and guide organizations functioning in Alberta and North West Territories are: Fort Vermilion, Fort McMurray, Aklavik, Tuktoyaktuk, Fort Simpson, Yellowknife, Fort Chipewyan.

The leaders plan to organize troops and groups at Hay River, Fort Norman, Fort Providence, Fort Rae, Talpson River and Fort Resolution.

Anglican and Roman Catholic clergymen have been enthusiastic over organization of scout and guide groups in the far north.

Holloway and Miss Riddoch will fly several thousand miles on the tour.

New Building To Be Erected If Land Sold

A four-storey commercial building will be erected on two lots, immediately north of Hudson's Bay Co. parking lot on 102 street, if an offer for this property, from E. I. Clarke, Edmonton business man, is accepted by city council.

The property is located on the west side of 102 street and has been held from sale for several years in th expectation it would be required for a hotel site.

The city commissioners recommend the sale of the two lots for $32,000, present assessed value.

If the sale is approved Mr. Clarke proposed to erect a building 100 feet by 150 feet on the property. It will be four storeys, but its footings will be of sufficient strength to carry additional storeys.

Immediate start on construction plans is contemplated if the sale is approved

Is Labor Cleaning House?

Harvey Murphy, western regional director of the International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers, who, with his union has been expelled from the Canadian Congress of Labor, will seek reinstatement both for himself and his organization.

The Canadian Congress of Labor will strengthen its position with the public and with most of its own members by keeping Harvey Murphy at a distance.

Pretext for the expulsion was found in an article in a union paper attacking the CCL president A. R. Mosher. But everybody knows that the CCL disassociated itself from Murphy because of his Communist proclivities.

In other words, the Canadian Congress of Labor's expulsion of Murphy was probably only a step in its process of cleaning house.

That housecleaning process was and is necessary because the labor movement suffers unreasonably from the few highly articulate Communists who have managed to sneak into it.

The rank and file of Canadian labor is not Communist. That fact is thoroughly established in the pitiful vote accorded Labor Progressive party candidates even in the most highly unionized sections.

But the radical activities of a few Communists who have fastened on the labor movement as a badge of respectability tends to color the public's opinion of labor generally.

It is an unfortunate error because the labor movement has been of tremendous va.ue in the development of industry in Canada.

Moveover, sane and able members of the labor movement, and that means the overwhelming majority of them, are perfectly aware that Communism offers nothing but eventual slavery to workers.

The Canadian Congress of Labor, then, takes a courageous and essential stand in seeking, as it apparently is seeking, to purge its ranks of men and organizations that not only disrupt industry but do a great disservice to labor.

The expulsion of Harvey Murphy is an excellent start. The public's respect for labor will be maintained as the expulsion is made to stick.

Risky North Flights Should Be Stopped

Members of the Nahanni Expedition Inc., whose exploratory flight to this famed spot was stopped when the Dominion government refused to allow them to bring in their plane from the United States are said to have characterized the official action as "idiotic."

They say their trip would have advertised the Valley in the United States and have promoted a tourist rush to the place.

It is difficult to imagine any substantial tourist rush developing into a region so remote and so inaccessible as this.

The truth is that the Air Transport Board in Ottawa took steps to prevent this spectacular flight largely because of the risk involved. In the view of officials of the board, it would have been a practical certainty that the expedition would have had to be rescued should luck have turned against them.

These rescue expeditions are too frequent and too expensive. It is not fair to ask the taxpayers of Canada to foot the bill for hauling out adventurous flyers who get into difficulties on foolhardy trips that sometimes are less exploratory than exhibitionist.

It is true that a certain amount of risk must necessarily be involved in pioneering flights that have some real development value.

And it is hard to believe that the Air Transport Board would embarrass such genuine pioneering flights nor object to offering every assistance should rescue be necessary.

But a risky flight that has no purpose but adventure or personal profit should not impose expense on the Canadian people.

It is right that such flights be forbidden.

No Sentimental Leniency

It would be a very great mistake and certainly no kindness for the courts of this district to extend sentimental leniency to the juveniles caught by police in acts of vandalism throughout the city.

It would be a mistake because the wanton destruction of property by a few youngsters in Edmonton has reached a disgraceful peak of frequency.

Over a long period of time the police appealed to parents to control their children and emphasized their reluctance to take legal steps against the culprits.

But this admirable forbearance produced few results. The acts of vandalism in street cars, houses under construction and other places have increased beyond all toleration.

It would be no kindness to extend leniency because if these destructive children are not checked, their lawless instinct will lead them into increasingly grave offences until they land in the penitentiary.

In the past year, vandalism has simply run riot in Edmonton. Only strong judicial measures will bring it to a halt.

Soviet's Consul In New York Is Only Tool That Failed

THOMPSON

The state department's note to the Soviet government demanding the recall of Jacob M. Lomakin follows proper diplomatic procedures but veils the most pertinent facts. The note says:

"The United States government considers that Consul General Lomakin's conduct constitutes an abuse of the prerogatives of his position and a gross violation of the internationally accepted standards governing the conduct of foreign officials. The department of state therefore requests the president to revoke his exequatur . . . and that he leave the United States within a reasonable time."

Elsewhere in the note addressed by the state department to Mr. Molotov, the statement is made:

"From the foregoing" (a recounting of the facts concerning the attempts of the two Soviet teachers to escape returning to Russia) "it appears that the representations of the Soviet government in regard to these cases have been based upon misinformation" (supplied by Mr. Lomakin).

This puts the onus of the affair upon Mr. Lomakin where, of course, it technically belongs. But by any real standards of truth, Mr. Lomakin is not the guilty party. The guilty parties are Mr. Molotov and the international Communist party.

Abused His Privilege

Mr. Lomakin certainly abused the prerogatives of a diplomatic position, but he did not overstep the duties imposed by his office. He did precisely what he had to do and what the United States government knew he was supposed to do, as a Soviet official.

All attempts of Soviet citizens to leave Soviet jurisdiction are crimes in Soviet law, punishable by extreme sentences. In Soviet eyes, Mrs. Kasenkina and Mr. Samarin are worse than murderers. In Soviet eyes, it was Mr. Lomakin's duty to apprehend these criminals and deliver them to Soviet justice. Had Mr. Lomakin failed to attempt to carry out this duty, he would have been recalled and liquidated. His alternative was to have joined the teachers and delivered himself into the protection of the U.S. government, which possibly would have rejected him, fearing the Soviet charge that the U.S.A. was allenating (probably "kidnapping") Soviet officials!

Another statement in the U.S. note is this:

"The government of the United States cannot permit the exercise within the United States of the police power of any foreign government."

The U.S. government should not permit it, but does. It permits it when it recognizes the legitimate right of the international Communist party to maintain an American section.

Within the Communist party there is a "control division," which is an international (and Soviet) police power. It watches and judges the actions of party officials everywhere, including those within the U.S. Its officials often are attached to Soviet diplomatic staffs, especially consular agents. So when we accept the existence of the Communist party we de facto accept this police power. And when we accept diplomatic relations with the Soviet Union, we accept, de facto, persons whom we know will interfere in American affairs.

Based On Fictions

Our relations with the Soviet government thus are based on fictions regarding "internationally accepted standards governing the conduct of foreign officials." The Soviet government never has, since its birth, accepted such standards. Its fixed policy is to violate them.

Forcing the recall of Mr. Lomakin will not change anything. In Russia he probably will be liquidated, not for "abusing official prerogatives," or "misinforming" his bosses, but for having failed. The Soviet government will replace him with another official deemed more competent to abuse official prerogatives—and get away with it.

The proper answer to the Lomakin affair would have been the severance of diplomatic relations with the Soviet union. I am not recommending it, for a number of reasons. But we all should be clear in our minds that all the Mr. Lomakins, amiable objects, are tools and not prime movers in an affair which represents universal Soviet policy.

Smiles

A Londoner visiting St. Andrews for the first time determined to try a round of golf. Furnishing himself with the usual implements and a caddie, he went out before breakfast.

It seemed easy, and his first drive was a terrific swipe. When the turf had ceased to descend, he turned, somewhat dazed, to the caddie, and asked: "What did I hit just now, my lad?"

"Scotland, sir."

It was the day after the party. There were two oranges left on the plate, and mother said that Mary and Jack could have them.

Sad to relate, Jack took the bigger orange, leaving the smaller one for his sister, whereupon she began to cry.

"Now what's up?" asked Jack.

"Why, you've got the big one," wept Mary.

"Look here," said Jack, holding out the two oranges. "If I asked you to take one, which would you take?"

"The small one, of course," said his polite sister.

"Well, what are you growling about, you've got it, haven't you?"

Teacher: "Willie, which would you rather have been Shakespeare or Charlie Chaplin?"

Willie: "Charlie Chaplin, Miss 'cause he ain't dead!"

Two Civic Concerts

Editor, Bulletin.—Through the medium of this column I wish to express sincere thanks and appreciation to all those people who gave voluntarily of their time and talent to make the two civic concerts held this summer so successful. I wish to make particular reference to the choristers and sincerely hope that the pleasure they brought to thousands of Edmonton citizens was in some small measure a reward in itself.

Because of the fine response of both the citizens who heard and appreciated our efforts and the artists who performed in them, plans are now being made for a larger number of similar concerts next summer.

The two concerts presented this year were made possible through the transcription fund of the American Federation of Musicians and were made successful through the fine efforts of the artists who took part in them.

International Education

Editor, Bulletin.—"I am happy to say that the experiment in international education has been a complete success." These are the words of Dr. Marcus Long, dean of studies at the International Student Seminar which 50 Canadian students attended for six weeks in Pisek, Germany.

General Pope, head of the Canadian Military Mission in Berlin, also attended the closing ceremony and addressed the students. He expressed his pleasure in seeing that the Canadians had been able to live so peacefully and indeed happily with young people of 15 other nationalities. At no time could students of one country be accused of ringing together and adopting an isolationistic attitude toward the others.

Even the 50 German students had fitted in well. At first it was feared that they would be unco-operative and perhaps a little hesitant about entering into free discussion but before the conference was over more than a few days old they were part of the big happy family in the historic old Schloss (castle) at Pisek. Acting on the advice of Dr. Long, the students sought to find a basis of co-operation in the ideas they had in common. In the many and very lively discussions it could not be claimed that the representatives of any particular country were outstanding. The largest differences were in the points of view with regard to history, and also with regard to present European co-operation. The Swedish students were the butt of many sly remarks because of their isolationistic attitude.

For the fifty Canadians the summer in Europe is not quite over. Between August 15 and Sept. 1, the date of sailing from Rotterdam on the S.S. Volendam for New York, they are free to travel about and see as much of the continent as they can.

Jean Anderson, modern language student from the University of Alberta, left immediately to take part in a tour of Czechoslovakia.

Ron Manery, also from U of A, availed himself of a rather rare opportunity to visit Poland as a guest of the students of that country. Both should have some marvelous tales to relate on their return. Dale Thomson is travelling direct to Paris to begin his studies at the Sorbonne, with the help of the Rotary Scholarship awarded to him in June of this year.

The Canadians, with the exception of those few who are remaining on this side of the Atlantic, will all meet again on board ship and make the ten day voyage back home together. They are all looking forward to seeing their relatives and friends again, and to relating their experiences.

Although Dr. Long's statement that one is never the same after such an experience as the Canadians have had this summer is very true, one feels that this will not in any way deter from the happy hours the travellers look forward to on their return to their respective homes.

Hutterites Not Welcome

Editor, Bulletin.—"D" Day has passed and the threat of a Hutterite invasion seems to be on the wane. Our doorsteps have been swept clean and with true co-operative effort our community remains intact.

But the Hutterite problem is far from solved. Those in authority do not seem interested. Some claim ignorance of the fact there is anything wrong. Surely protests from the Canadian Legion farm organizations, the Women's Institute and others should make them realize that all is not right.

Under the existing law the infusion of a Hutterite colony will be resented by any community. This resentment may be termed un-Christian, unbrotherly and intolerable but the fact remains that until the Hutterite becomes a nauralized Canadian citizen and accepts our social conditions he cannot expect a welcome to any community.

There is an opening here for anyone with a missionary spirit to convert these people to accept Canadian standards of life.

Spiritual Healing

Editor, Bulletin—People like myself who have been cured by spiritual healing will welcome the prominence given in the press here in England to the Churches Council of Healing initiated by the Archbishop of Canterbury, Dr. William Temple, in 1940. This may well be regarded as an encouraging sign of the times, and an assurance that this important part of the ministry of Jesus has not been entirely forgotten. Jesus always regarded illness as part of the kingdom of evil, and He fought it with all His powers. Therefore the Church must support every attack made on suffering whether it is made through the body, the mind or the soul. Suffering was never the will of God or Jesus was not doing His Father's will in curing it.

The Church too must support the healing activities of those who attack suffering through the mind. These are days when we are beginning to understand a great deal about illness which although it looks as if it were physically caused, is often a physical concomitant of a psychological or even a spiritual disharmony. The mind has immense power over the body and very often the mind escapes from its own distress by thrusting as it were its woes on the body, because physical suffering is more easily borne than mental suffering.

You may ask, what has all this to do with the Church? But it has a lot to do with the Church that the people should be made well. Jesus gave His command to heal the sick in the same sentence as His command to preach the Gospel. One is not more important than the other.

Finally, the Church must support the attack on evil through the soul. That is why we ask all those who enquire about spiritual healing to join in a specified time with our prayers of intercession for the sick everywhere. So that just as the doctor co-operates with God on physical levels and the psychologist on mental levels, we can co-operate with God on spiritual levels because we know that every part of the personality—body, mind or spirit, can be reached to some extent by any other part.

To those therefore who believe that spiritual healing can do something more for them than is being done already, I would say that we shall welcome them to this great world-wide circle of intercession for the sick and if they are fortunate enough to be in good health themselves, they may like to express their gratitude by joining us in helping others not so fortunate.

There are no charges for healing intercession or membership fees of any kind but if enquiries can defray the cost of return postage, it will be a help. Everyone can join in this great work.

That vitriolic Yugoslav-Romanian row is worth watching, since it may well be a gauge by which we can judge how Moscow's world revolution is progressing and, equally important, what tactics are being employed to meet emergencies.

This Red upheaval represents the first actual break in the solidarity of Russia's satellite states. It had its inception in July when the powerful, Moscow-dominated Communist information bureau split with Tito, charging him with maintaining a "hateful" policy towards Soviet Russia and with departing from the Marx-Lenin philosophy.

Tito has denied the allegations and declared his devotion to Stalin. However, at the same time he has made it amply clear that Yugoslavia is running its own show, which is to say that Tito is running Yugoslavia's show.

So Moscow is bent on breaking Tito, and the latest development is Yugoslavia's charge that Rumanian agents are trying to foment revolution for the overthrow of Marshal Tito's regime.

There are several significant points which emerge from this situation. In the first place it is obvious that Russia contemplates no individuality for her subject states. They must toe the Moscow line precisely.

Apropos of this The Times of London yesterday said the Russians' response to Yugoslav defiance, by clamping their grip more tightly on their own satellites, has the greatest significance for the West. Approved Technique For Bathtub Singing

Two of the world's foremost authorities on singing in the bath-tub, a widely practiced yet rarely-discussed aspect of serious music, were in conference for more than an hour in a hotel room yesterday and I am happy to pass on some highlights of their illuminating discussion.

One of the authorities was Prof. Frankie Laine, 35, of Los Angeles, Calif., a man worshipped by bathtub singers everywhere. The professor was once described by Time Magazine as a man who sings "like every man would like to sing in his bath-tub."

The other authority, whose work in the field of bathtub singing is largely unknown to the general public, was myself.

Prof. Laine, a dark-complexioned man with the appearance of a retired and prosperous middleweight pugilist, opened the discussion with a general analysis of bathtub singing and its little-known importance as a release for musical expression.

Glancing up from a racing sheet and taking off a pair of gigantic horn-rimmed spectacles with a judicial air, Frankie (as he is known to his younger fans) declared: "Bathtub singing is hep. A guy in his tub sings because he wants to. He's not showing off to the boys with 'Sweet Adeline.' He's not singing 'For He's a Jolly Good Fellow' at Rotary. He's just singing because he feels good and it's in there and it's just gotta come out. It's as natural as . . . as natural as . . ."

"As a bird?" I suggested eagerly.

"At a bird," the professor agreed. "This is pure, happy music. This is the real people's music."

Some Types

The discussion was interrupted momentarily while the professor consulted his racing information. "Nora G looks like a good thing in the first," he opined.

I brought our minds back to the more serious topic by a learned discourse on the various types of bathtub singers, explaining that I, personally, was the reclining type who is usually in best voice in a very full, hot tub or when brought to a full boil. I noted in passing that my repertoire mainly features the familiar classics such as "Sweet Sue," "Margie," "When Put the Benzedrine in Mrs. Murphy's Ovaltine" and "Nagasaki."

This introduced a note of sharp controversy into the debate. Prof. Laine claiming that bathtub results may best be obtained under a lukewarm shower.

"Nothing better than standing under the spray, gargling a bit and letting loose with a few dynamic riffs," Prof. Laine explained technically. "The standing position allows more volume than the supine, in my opinion."

"Perhaps so," I mused, "but the slow and horizontal, or boarding house style of bath seems to induce a more mellow, sentimental type of ballad."

"An interesting point," the professor agreed. "I feel that most of us shower men are more inclined to pure rhythm. A cold shower, for instance, always causes me to kick it around a bit, like this." The professor then sang a complicated phrase which, on paper, would appear as follows: Broo! Broo! Broodle-dee Broodleee! Brah! Broo! Broo!

"Bravo!" I exclaimed since the demonstration was reminiscent of some of my own recent efforts at a summer camp equipped with running glacier water.

Just Be Natural

After a short, pungent discussion on the relative merits of the horses in the fourth race, Prof. Laine ventured to explain the psychological aspects of bathtub singing.

"Primarily it's the acoustics," he asserted. "The marble or tile walls bounce the voice back so that you actually hear yourself. None of the tone is lost in drapes or in corners. Actually you don't sing any better. But you think you do. Which explains why squeaky voices will tackle "Asleep in the Deep" in a tub."

"True," I murmured.

"Also it is about the only place where a man can sing without worrying about an audience," Frankie went on. "He hangs up his inhibitions with his clothes. He's not afraid to tackle any number from be-bop to operatic arias. This is singing for singing's sake and so often it's fresh and alive. I often wonder how many sensational records could be made if we put a mike in every bathroom."

Since the professor's own style of public singing has the vitality of an uninhibited vigor of bathtub music at its best I suggested that his naturalness might be the key to his own astounding success in the crowded arena of popular singers.

"It might be," the professor agreed, amiably. "Still, it's too bad you didn't drop around an hour or two ago when I was having my shower. I went through a few routines that were really solid. Broo! Broo! Broodleee Broodleee! Brah! Broo!"

"Broo! Broo!" I answered and we went our separate, happy ways.

Out of the storm's mouth
The white clouds come out,
They slowly turn
like hills of clouded ice or winter glass before our eyes.
Under their shadows burn
battered buildings ashamed, tenements under East River
under a project of new homes;
the flapping fringes of the city
cower and cover their knees and bones.
But the clouds are not sad
on this account. Can it be that, somewhere, they see beyond mountains and green lands?
They move like the Greek

United Kingdom automobile manufacturers last June exported more than 20,000 units, only 1,600 less than the combined car shipments of the U.S.A., Canada and France in the previous month—the latest period for which comparable figures are available. Exports of commercial vehicles in the same month numbered nearly 6,600 units, less than 50 short of the all-time record of April last. The value of overseas sales of United Kingdom agricultural tractors and parts in the same month exceeded £1,500,000 ($6,000,000). More than 200,000 United Kingdom motor vehicles—cars, commercial vehicles and agricultural tractors and their parts and accessories—left Britain for overseas in the first six months of this year.

More than 21,000 permanent houses were built in Britain during June. These figures recently announced by the Ministry of Health, show that this is nearly 900 above the previous post-war record set up in May. In addition, 2,300 temporary houses were built. The present rate of building means that about 1,000 families are being rehoused every working day. By the end of June, a total of 729,000 permanent and temporary houses had been completed since the end of the war. Thus Britain is well within sight of her post-war housing target of 750,000 houses by autumn of this year.

SAFE DELAYS BANK OPENING

Today's opening day activities at the Royal Bank's new 124 street branch were somewhat curtailed by the unexpected installation of a three and one-half ton safe.

Arrival of the huge safe, which was not due until next week, occurred just one hour after the new bank opened.

Banking transactions quickly petered out, as transfer men removed the largest front window and brought their block-and-tackle and still skids into play.

Health Lab Mooted For Calgary

Alberta's department of health is planning the opening of a new provincial laboratory in Calgary, it was learned today.

At the present time laboratory services for Alberta's smaller hospitals, health districts, and physicians and surgeons is carried on at the provincial laboratory in the Medical Building, at the University of Alberta.

Dr. R. M. Bow, deputy minister of health for the province, said the new laboratory has been made necessary by the pressure of work on the present staff and facilities in Edmonton.

The new lab will be at the Keith Sanatorium, at Calgary, and will perform all the duties of a public health laboratory which includes bacteriological, pathological and serological services required in the southern half of the province.

Dr. Bow would not estimate the cost of the proposed addition since plans are still in a formative stage.

The deputy minister said many of the larger hospitals were equipped with their own laboratory services, but that the government provided these services for smaller ones.

Record Number Of Pupils Expected Here

When schools open on Wednesday, September 1, approximately 16,000 pupils will assemble in the elementary, intermediate and high schools under the supervision of the Edmonton Public School Board.

A few changes in school boundaries have been necessitated, due to shifts in the school population and to the opening of additional rooms.

Five schools will have new principals.

H. Gerry, who was principal of Bennett School last year, will be in charge of McCauley School. The former principal, A. J. H. Powell, M.A. is on exchange in England.

T. D. Baker, B.Ed, is principal of the new Virginia Park School.

This school was completed during the past summer. Pupils in Grades I to VI, residing in the district midway between Cromdale and the Highlands, will assemble at this school.

L. Nichols, B.Ed, is the new principal at Bennett School. Mr. Nichols was formerly a teacher on the staff of the Highlands Intermediate School.

E. Dain is in charge at Cromdale School. Mr. Dain was principal at the North Delton School during the past year.

Miss J. McNeil, who was principal of Cromdale School last year, retired in June. N. Cuthbertson is principal at North Delton School. He was formerly on the staff at McKay Avenue School.

Keith Bissell, Mus.Bac, assumes his duties as assistant supervisor of music. Mr. Bissell comes from Toronto, and was on exchange in Nelson, B.C. during the past year.

VITAL INFORMATION

In announcing the allocation of teachers and some changes in the school boundaries for the coming year, R. S. Sheppard, Superintendent of Schools, gave the following information.

The four-room addition to Spruce Avenue School has been completed. Work is being rushed on the Victoria Composite High School, but it is not sufficiently advanced that the school may be occupied this fall.

Courses in Woodwork, Electricity, Machine Shop and Home Economics, will be offered to all high school pupils during the coming year. Pupils desiring to take more than one technical option are required to register at Victoria High School.

The Machine Shop and Electricity options are offered only at the Technical School which will be operated in conjunction with Victoria High School.

The Woodwork option will be given at the Technical School to all north side high school pupils, regardless of the north side high school where they are registered.

Pupils registered at Garneau and University High Schools who desire to take the Woodwork I option, or the Home Economics option, will take it at University High School.

Pupils registered at a north side high school who desire Home Economics III will be at Victoria High School if there is accommodation. Otherwise it will be provided at one of the intermediate centres.

McDougall High School is the only centre where a complete commercial course is offered. Pupils from any part of the city desiring a commercial course should attend McDougall High School. Some commercial options are offered at other high schools.

The following are the chief changes that have been made in school boundaries on the north side of the river.

All pupils in Grades 10, 11 and 12 residing west of the following boundary will assemble at Westglen High School—North from the river on the middle of 119th street to the city limits.

Youth Gets Voice In Church Council

Encyclical of World Assembly Will Include Its Opinions

By Richard Tompkins

AMSTERDAM, Aug. 27.—(AP)—Youth will have its say in the pronouncements of the world council of churches.

It will have a bigger voice than ever before in the projection of modern religious thinking that will come out of the world council assembly now meeting here, council leaders said today.

OPINIONS RECOGNIZED

Representatives of Christian youth forces are carrying on discussions parallel with those of the older generation. And their opinions will be recognized and included in the council's encyclical to be released next week.

Charles P. Taft, United States Protestant Episcopal lay delegate to the assembly, said young people are shaping the thinking of the world council of churches through the many youth movements in various countries.

Many of the younger people attending the meeting here are from missionary countries. Their contributions to thinking will form a part of the council's pronouncements, since they represent a cross-section of the church which the world council seeks to unite.

FLYING SQUADRON

One observer of the world council sees youth as the "flying squadron of the Ecumenical (world-wide church) movement." But this observer does not want those with the Ecumenical outlook to become "ecumaniacs" and left to themselves while the church goes its own way.

A council section yesterday heard Prof. Joseph Hromadka of Prague plead at a closed door meeting for "more imaginative thinking in the west on the international question." Hromadka contended that the west was deluding itself "when it imagined it possessed freedom and others did not."

Only Labor Daily Not In 'Good Shape'

TRURO, N.S., Aug. 27.—(CP)—Thomas Kennedy, international vice-president of the United Mine Workers, said yesterday the Glace Bay, N.S., Gazette is not in "good shape."

Replying to a UMW District 26 convention delegate who asked if he had any information on Canada's only Labor daily newspaper, Mr. Kennedy said the plant is not modern enough for a daily, is too isolated for general circulation and cannot depend on national advertising.

It is a costly proposition, he said, but is of local concern to District 26. "It might be worked but it seems to be a financial flop."

There will be a full-dress debate on the Gazette, sold by the UMW this year to a group of employes, before the convention ends.

Six vessels of the United States Navy have borne the name of "Wasp."

CITY LIFE TOO MUCH FOR DEER

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 27.—(AP)—City life was too much for a four-year-old buck deer that somehow wandered in from the west yesterday. It died in rush-hour traffic here from exhaustion and fear after being subdued by a man with a lariat after it smashed a window in attempting to leap over an automobile on a busy street.

Ban On 'Red Dean' Is Asked Removed

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27.—(AP)—A delegation representing the American Soviet Friendship Society yesterday urged the state department to reconsider its refusal to permit Dr. Hewlett Johnson, dean of Canterbury, to visit the United States under its sponsorship.

The group made this request to Charles Bohlen, deputy assistant secretary of state, during a 50-minute conference at the department.

Dr. Johnson, widely known as the "Red Dean," has been denied a visa to enter the United States for a lecture tour. The state department took this action because the society is on the "subversive" list compiled by attorney-general Tom Clark.

In asking for reconsideration, it is understood the society claimed it was put on the subversive list unfairly and expects the courts to sustain this contention.

U.S. Speeds Home Dependents Abroad

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27.—(AP)—The United States Army yesterday announced plans to speed up passage home from Europe of dependents of military personnel and civilian employes. Some of the dependents will be routed over commercial airlines. Nothing of an emergency nature is involved, the army stressed.

Parks Having Record Year

OTTAWA, Aug. 27.—(CP)—Canada's national parks attracted a record number of visitors in the four months ended July 31, the resources department announced yesterday.

The attendance was 694,344, a six-per-cent increase over the previous all-time high of 653,881 in the same period last year.

Spring floods caused fewer visitors to the far western parks, but others are showing a banner season, with more Canadians among the visitors.

Jasper and Banff national parks in Alberta both shared in the upswing, the latter setting the pace with 186,770 visitors or 24,133 more than last year. Riding Mountain Park in Manitoba ranked second to Banff with an attendance of 119,864, an increase of 15,827.

Elk Island National Park in Alberta, recorded 40,705 persons for an increase of 10,339; and Prince Albert National Park in Saskatchewan attracted 24,594 visitors, an increase of 2,285.

Sask. Leads In Population Shift To Coast Province

VICTORIA, Aug. 27.—(CP)—Saskatchewan continued to lead all other provinces in the shift of population to British Columbia as reflected in the monthly report issued yesterday by W. R. Bone, regional director of family allowances.

During August, 461 families receiving the allowance entered B.C. and 281 left for other parts of the Dominion.

Saskatchewan sent 142 and received 59, Alberta sent 121 and received 103 while Manitoba contributed 95 and received 36.

Home Economists Deplore Lack of a National Dish

CALGARY, Aug. 27.—(CP)—When it comes to food, Canada's home economists haven't much to say that's complimentary about their country.

Polled on their opinions before heading home after a four-day convention, the home economists generally concluded that Canadians don't care too much where or what they eat.

Foremost regret was that Canada has no real national dish, although with the best raw materials in the world that might soon to be remedied.

Many of the 200 delegates to the Canadian Home Economics Association convention also bemoaned that Canadians don't demand orginkl food and sometimes don't care whether the food they eat is sanitary.

ALBERTA BEEF PRAISED

"Outside of Quebec's pea soup," said one delegate, "we haven't any national dish."

"And Western Canada appears far less discriminatory in good food than the east," commented a confirmed westerner sadly.

"Westerners have only Chinese dishes—good but at that mostly concocted originally in the States—if they want something different."

But she hastened to add Alberta had the best beef in the world—the piece de resistance at the closing banquet—even if it sometimes lacked trimming.

The lady gave full marks for effort to the Alberta government which had sponsored a contest seeking a provincial dish tempting to tourists and chock full of originality. Saskatchewan also had held a contest.

Prize winner for Alberta was a dish essentially prime steak. For Saskatchewan, a meat pie topped with whole wheat dough caught the judges' palates.

SASKATOON PIE LAUDED

"Saskatoon pie is as good as anything you'll get," said a third who also contributed the tip the prairie berries resembling a blue berry could be improved with lemon juice or cinnamon.

Easterners had a taste of saskatoons when two appeared on each fruit cocktail, one on either side of the maraschino cherry.

It was the concensus that easterners, especially in Montreal but becoming better educated gastronomically in Toronto too, were prone to demand and appreciate tasty, original dishes. Hence the "excellent" facilities in Montreal, said an easterner.

A bad food sense could be improved in time, it was felt.

"But they'll drink from dipped glasses and eat from dirty plates without complaining," said a despairing dietitian.

Italy Accused

CAIRO, Aug. 27.—(AP) — The Arab League accused Italy yesterday of allowing Ztonists to use that country as a centre for smuggling immigrants, weapons and goods to Palestine.

New National Park Approved

KENTVILLE, N.S., Aug. 27.—(CP)—The dominion government has approved the establishment of a national park in the Cape Blomidon area of Kings County, Senator Joan A. McDonald said last night. All that remained was for the provincial government to purchase the property.

Establishment of the park will climax a move started 15 years ago by Annapolis Valley interests to have a park set up there.

The cape is a great red sandstone bluff rising 600 feet above Minas Basin.

Young Russian Gets High Chess Honor

LONDON, Aug. 27.—(Reuter)—David Bronstein, 24-year-old Russian chess player and winner of the international chess tournament in Stockholm this month, has been awarded the title of "grand master" the youngest to receive the award, the Moscow Radio reported.

BABY-SITTER PAID MORE THAN TEACHER

TORONTO, Aug. 27.—(CP)—A baby-sitter is paid more an hour than the average school teacher, Dr. Charlotte Whitton, Ottawa welfare worker, told members of the Federation of Women Teachers' Associations of Ontario last night.

Miss Whitton said the reason may be that most teachers "are women who have remained so patient and proficient."

She remarked that teachers are leaving the profession in large numbers, with women staying an average of six years and men 7½.

The main reason for a shortage of 7,000 teachers was inadequate pay, Miss Whitton said the minimum salary of the rural school teacher today varies from just under $500 to $1,200.

Spy Hunters Call In Writing Expert

Now Searching For Key To Celebrated Hiss-Chambers Riddle

By William F. Arbogast

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27.—(AP)—Congressional spy hunters today called in a handwriting expert in their search for a key to the celebrated Hiss-Chambers riddle.

They claimed some success—a sworn statement by ex-Communist Louis Budenz that he always had considered Hiss to be under party discipline.

DENIED RED TRIPE

Hiss, former top-level United States state department official, has heatedly denied any red tinge. He called Whittaker Chambers a liar Wednesday for telling the house of representatives un-American activities committee that Hiss had a leading part in a pre-war Communist underground in the United States.

Chambers, self-described courier for the underground, stuck to his story and said it is Hiss who is lying.

The committee summoned the handwriting expert to check the writing of a William Rosen against the signature "William Rosen" on a title transfer of Hiss' old Model A Ford in 1936.

Chambers, whom Hiss had acknowledged knowing and befriending under another name, claims Hiss wanted the car turned over to some poor Communist organizer.

Hiss maintains he simply threw the Ford in on an apartment sublease he arranged with Chambers.

COPIES OF RECORDS

The committee has made public photographic copies of official records showing that title to the car passed from Hiss to a local automobile dealer and then to a "William Rosen."

McDowell, conceding that there may be many William Rosens, said there was no certainty that the man questioned yesterday was the one who once held title to Hiss' car.

He said Rosen refused to indentify the signature "William Rosen" on the title but wrote his name 10 times for the committee.

Sicily Peaceful Despite Red Strike

ROME, Aug. 27.—(AP)—Sicily remained peaceful yesterday, despite a Communist general strike call issued following the arrest of a group of Communists there, dispatches said. Communist newspapers said the Sicilian strike was a "complete success" everywhere. Opposition papers declared it had failed. There were no reports of disorders in the often-turbulent isle.

Inside Hollywood

By Bob Thomas

HOLLYWOOD. — (AP)—Producer Walter Wanger, who will shift his operations abroad next year, hopes to add Joan Crawford to his star roster, which already boasts Greta Garbo.

Wanger wants Joan for "The Ballad and the Source," which is slanted for production in Paris. "I want to shoot "Ballad" in May at the same time I'm making the Garbo picture over there," he says. "Joan hasn't said yes or no yet, but I'm hoping."

TO PREVIEW "BRAND"

Sir Ralph Richardson has his own idea of play try-outs. He'll preview "Brand" on NBC before it opens at the old Vic in London. "I always do that; then I have only my voice to worry about," he says. It's a difficult play since it includes an avalanche. It's hard to cast an avalanche," reports Sir Ralph.

Rod Cameron plays his first heavy role in "Rose of Cimarron." He kills almost everybody in the cast, except hero George Montgomery, of course.

New rumor: That J. Arthur Rank is trying to buy a Hollywood studio, so he'll have a better chance of cracking the United States film market.

Humphrey Bogart is holding court on the "Knock on Any Door" these days and you can get an opinion on anything from him. Here are two late ones:

Review spec.—"Most of them don't know good acting, good writing or good direction. They blame and praise the wrong people."

Producers.—"What do they do? I'm hanged if I know. In New York you can go up to a producer and ask him how things are going. Here they all sit at special tables in the commissary to maintain the cast system."

A 'Veteran' and a Freshman

A FEW TIPS on what goes on at University of Michigan is given Ed May, left, by upper-classman Bob Fleming. The two city athletes—with Fleming acting as 'chaperone' will entrain for the famed university in two weeks' time. It will be May's first term and Fleming's second.

Edmonton Athletes 'Eye' University of Michigan

By Jim Algeo

It isn't every Edmonton athlete who gets to attend universities across the line, and it isn't everyone who gets the chance to take in activities at famed University of Michigan, producer of the best unofficial college football team in the United States last year.

But that's the "sportsmen's haven" Bob Fleming and Ed May, prominent city athletes, will take in this semester.

To Fleming, who plays baseball, basketball, football and hockey, it will be a repeat performance, having broken in at Michigan last year. However, to youthful May, it marks the beginning of a thrilling new experience, and he's more than somewhat in the dark as to just what's in store.

The pair—with Fleming acting as "chaperone" will catch the rattler either Sept. 8 or 9. Bon is making the trip early to show May the ropes. "With 22,000 students bustling around the campus, it's an easy matter for a freshman to get balled up," was the way Fleming put it.

This season Fleming expects to confine most of his athletic prowess to the ice lanes. And included in the team's hockey jaunts will be a trip to Southern California where he will play against an old Edmonton chum, Eric McDonald. Mac Donald starred at football and hockey with University of Alberta Golden Bears two years ago. He is now attending the University of Southern California.

All this hockey talk casts a bit of glum over May. The rugged defenceman, who showed with EAC juniors last season, won't be eligible for hockey this semester. It's a standing rule that first-year students can't partake in the puck-chasing game.

But May, who has his John-Henry glued to a Montreal Canadiens form, doesn't plan to give up hockey. If he finds time he will play for some amateur club in Detroit, 40 miles from the university. Fleming kept in shape last winter by playing in the Motor City.

When asked if he would try out with the famed Michigan football club, Fleming replied that "competition is far too keen." "But", he added, "my roommate —Chuck Ortmann from Milwaukee—should make the grade."

THREE DOT STUFF: It was Cooney LeFeuvre, EAC hockey coach last winter, who first started May thinking about Michigan . . . After hearing of the good class of hockey played at the university, May promptly dug up more information . . . He is 18-years-old and 180 pounds of jarring body checks. He played first base for EAC of the Junior baseball wheel this season. . . . Plans a four-year course in aeronautical engineering . . . Fleming, who received an athletic scholarship last term, is on a six-year

COWLEY JUST ABOUT IN AS CANUCK COACH

VANCOUVER, Aug. 27.—(CP)—Boston Bruins' Bill Cowley was conceded in sport circles Thursday to be "just about in" as the new hockey coach of Vancouver Canucks of the Pacific Coast Hockey League. He would succeed Mac Colville of Edmonton, former New York Ranger star.

Clint Smith, top contender for the Canucks coaching spot, announced here he has accepted a contract to coach St. Paul of the United States Hockey League. Last year Smith coached Tulsa in the same loop.

Old Bobo Newsom Has Completed The Circle

CLEVELAND, Aug. 27.—(BUP)—The man who confesses to being the greatest pitcher in baseball—Bobo Newsom, is back in Hartsville, South Carolina. He is playing for a semi-pro team, beginning his career the way he ended it . . . with a small club.

Bobo, of course, has had his day in the majors. It seems as though the travelling man from Hartsville has played with just about every club in the major leagues. He will be well remembered in places like Brooklyn, Chicago, Washington, St. Louis and other stops. But especially in Detroit.

For how could Detroit ever forget what Newsom did on the afternoon of September 25th, 1940?

In the year 1940, Bobo had two ambitions left. One, to get more than 20 victories in one season, and two, to play in a world series Bobo never had played on a pennant team, and while he had hit the 20-mark, he had never gone over it.

On that afternoon eight years ago, the Tigers were at home to Chicago for a twin bill. Detroit was in first place, with a one-game lead over Cleveland.

SAVED THE GAME

Chicago almost got away with the first game, but Detroit tied it up in the eighth. And manager Del Baker called on Old Bobo to save the game in the ninth. Bobo held the White Sox to one hit in the ninth and tenth. They never got close to home plate. Detroit finally pushed across one run in the 10th to win the game.

That victory went to Bobo and gave him number 20 for the season.

Between games Bobo talked to Baker. He convinced the Detroit manager that Newsom should toss the second game as well. Baker agreed and Bobo walked out to dentistry grind . . . May is paying the full shot by himself.

And so Edmonton loses another pair of good, solid athletes to the States, two who would be good ambassadors for our fair city.

Packers Square Playoff Series

Packers squared their semi-final series in the men's Intermediate A League play-offs at South Kingsway Park by defeating Waterous 15-9 in a game featured by four home runs Thursday night.

The circuit drives were divided evenly, with Bill Sedor connecting in the first with one on and Pete Edwards pounding out one in the 6th with two on the bases for Packers and Len Goulet clouting a couple for the losing side. Goulet's came in the third with one on and the 5th with the bases empty.

the hill like a butcher ready to slaughter a calf.

There was no question in his mind but what he was going to beat the White Sox. After all, that victory would practically clinch the pennant for Detroit. And it would give Newsom his coveted 21st triumph. He took the second, too, 3-2.

He had copped 21 games for the year and at last he had made his way to a pennant winner. And if you think the Old Bobo was just talk, then you ought to hear what he did in the world series.

But, that's another story.

Jack McGill's Homer Kindles Esk Victory

By Stan Moher
(Bulletin Sports Editor)
Eskimos 10, Purity 1

CALGARY, Aug. 27.—Jack McGill, second hitter of the game, smashed a line drive home run out of Buffalo Stadium and off this get-rich-quick start Edmonton Eskimos went on to trample Calgary Puritys by 10-1 in the opening game of the Big Four League finals here Thursday night.

If this should happen Calgarians may have seen their last Big Four League action of the season. Third fourth and fifth games of the best-of-seven series are scheduled for Bendeview Park, Edmonton. Esks could easily wind it up without the necessity of returning to this Foothills centre.

McGill put the wood on a three-and two pitch to send the Eskimos off to their rollicking start. Ernie Kershaw, the Vancouver schoolmaster, was on the opened on the mound for the Cowtown mob. He disposed of Bill Price, who went down swinging but the batting McGill proved a slugger of another color.

CURVE DIDN'T BREAK

On the full count Kershaw's pitch was a curve ball. It hung in the strike zone a fraction too long and McGill drove it far and away over the fence, some 325 feet away.

Then and there the northerners took charge. Before Kershaw finally headed away to an early shower in the fourth inning—in favor of youthful Jack (Lefty) Mills—Eskimos had piled up five runs off seven hits. The Puritys were on the run.

Mills wasn't too much of a puzzle, either. He was clipped for another run in the seventh, got by to eighth in good shape, then lost all ides of where the plate was in the ninth inning. Esks proceeded to make hay to the extent of another four runs on three free tickets to first, Dave Brockie's double to right field and an error a first base by the usually reliable Walt Gully

In the meantime Doug Darrah, slim Eskimo pitching ace from Viking, was fashioning a four-hit mound chore by way of holding the Puritys at bay.

SHAKY START

A little shaky in the early exchanges, he got better the farther he went. The lone Purity run came in the fourth inning. Ernie Beland singled, Archie Wilder slashed a double to right field, to send Beland as far as third and the second-sacker made it all the way home as jittery Jim Lowe skied to Cliff Johnson in right field.

Gully's one-base to centre in the fifth and a like knock from the bat of big Ernie Choukalos in the next frame represented Oilers' attack over the rest of the route. Darrah, who turned back six of the home's seven strikes, was just coasting with Gully and company before the string played out.

In the decisive third inning at Esks cracked what proved to be the winning runs it took Darrah to touch off the uprising. He opened the frame with a two-bagger to right field and completed the journey on a Morris ground along the ground just inside third base . . . In turn the colorful Esk leader licked home from second as Mills cut loose with a wild pitch.

FROM THE DUGOUT

Centre-fielder Dave Brockie had a large evening. . . He collected three hits, drove in a pair of runs and pulled off the fielding gem with a leaping one-hand stab of Gully's stinging liner in the fifth. . . .

He appeared to misjudge the Gully drive, but quickly took himself off the hook with a honey of a catch. . . . By way of proving that the idol had those feet of clay he allowed the ball Choukalos hit safely in the sixth to get away from him and the Purity catcher took an extra base.

An overflow gathering of 3,000 fans saw Purity take it on the chin . . . Ground rules were in order, with a drive into the crowd an automatic two-bagger . . . Ken Stewart, recently transferred to Lethbridge by his firm, was in uniform. He did not see action. . . . Doug Darrah every Esk seems to swing from the heels at these friendly Buffalo Stadium fences . . . Bill Price is still in a hitting slump. . . . Ed Belter did not come down for Friday's game . . . He is due in early Friday . . . Riley Mullen worked behind the plate, with Harry Perrell on the bases.

Close Games Mark Women's Tourney

RIVERSIDE, N.B., Aug. 27.—(CP)—Defending champion Grace Lenczyk of Newington, Conn., defeated Vancouver's Mrs. Hugh O'Callaghan 8 and 7 Thursday to move into the semi-final round of Canadian ladies' open golf title play. But all the drama was packed into three other 18-hole quarter-final matches.

In one, Mrs. Graeme Pyke of Hudson Heights, near Montreal, fought four extra holes before beating Mrs. Cecil Gooderham of Toronto, one up.

In another, an all-Toronto match, veteran Ada Mackenzie pulled out a one-up victory on the 20th hole against Mrs. J. B. Seawright.

Just as exciting was the one-up win by Mrs. Eddie Bush of Wilmington, Del., over Mrs. J. C. Whitelaw of Montreal. Their match ended on the short 18th where the U.S. woman smacked her tee shot onto the green while Mrs. Whitelaw sprayed hers out of bounds for loss of a stroke which made the difference.

Tee shots also made the difference in the Pyke-Gooderham match, the marathon battle ending when Mrs. Pyke dropped her drive on the green after her Toronto opponent had caught a sand trap. Mrs. Gooderham, still in the sand after two attempted blasts, conceded the match.

Miss Mackenzie, five times Canadian champion, had her hands full all afternoon before finally subduing Mrs. Seawright. Tournament nerves didn't help Mrs. Seawright on the 19th where she missed a five-foot putt which would have given her the match.

"Boy, What A Day" Sighs Bruce Clarke

CALGARY, Aug. 27.—It wasn't necessary to look beyond 13-year-old Bruce Clarke to find the happiest youngster in all the province Thursday.

Winner of The Bulletin's Woodenface competition which concluded last month Bruce was in Calgary for the opening game of the Big Four league playoffs as a guest of the paper which sponsored the contest.

He travelled down from the Alberta capital with Ed Morris and his Eskimos in their special railway car . . . Hobnobbed with the players after arrival in Calgary . . . Sat in the Esk dugout for the full nine innings as the Edmontonians whacked Puritys by 10-1 in the series opener.

Between times he took in a double feature (two westerns, no less) at Pete Egan's Palace Theatre and had dinner with Jack McGill, Esk outfielder who will chase pucks this season for Buffalo Bisons. At another stage Manager Morris presented young Clarke with autographed by the Eskimos.

"Boy, oh boy, what a day", was about all he could muster as he hit the hay in his hotel room after the Esk- Purity tussle. "I'll sure remember this for a long time."

The young fellow was asleep in about one minute flat. A member of various Maple Leaf Athletic Club baseball and hockey squads Bruce is rated a promising athlete by those who are keeping an eye on his progress.

TEAM WATER BOTTLE BLAMED FOR POLIO

PETERBOROUGH, Ont., Aug. 27.—(CP)—Don Hendren, whose gridiron days are over because of poliomyelitis contracted last fall, has this advice for football players: Shun the team water bottle.

The youth, released from hospital this spring with legs in braces, thinks that infantile paralysis may be spread by the water bottle. He bases his belief on the fact that he and a team-mate on the Kitchener Panthers team, Bill Shadgett, contracted polio within four days of each other.

Don made this suggestion: Team water boys should carry containers as do milk carriers, with perhaps a dozen half-pint bottles, one for each player. After use, they should be cleaned before the water boy comes on the field again.

"CALGARY HAS TEAM TO BEAT"

Reeve Lauds Stampeders But Raps Rough Tactics

By CAMERON ROUGVIE

TORONTO, Aug. 27.—(CP)—Ted (Toronto Telegram) Reeve, coach of the Toronto Beaches Indians, both praises and criticizes the Calgary Stampeders who defeated his football team 16-7 last Saturday.

Ted says: "It is the concensus among our players that (Calgary) will be the team to beat in the Prairie conference." He praises the team's American professional style of blocking and its ability to work from the T-formation.

But he thinks the blocking may result in "a good deal of penalty grief if referees decide that (it) comes under the heading of Marquis of Queensbury or Bowser group code rather than that of the CRU."

He also warns coach Les Lear of the Stampeders against "his habit of trying to play quarterback from the sidelines."

Without shedding a tear over the result of the game or the refereeing — which "was quite good"—the "moaner" takes the Calgary line to task for "giving out wildly with the knees and knuckles" in an exhibition game.

"You don't mind that stuff so much in a league match when you can hand it back, but our outfit had made a fine impression all through the West with their clean play and we did not want to spoil the record. . . .

Bill (Niagara Falls Review) Gaynon scouts the rumored trade of Frank Brimsek, Boston Bruin goalie, to Montreal Canadiens for defenceman Kenny Reardon. He sees little chance of Bill Durnan being replaced in the Canadiens' nets by a player of Brimsek's years when young Gerry McNeil, Montreal Royals' netminder, is owned by the Flying Frenchmen.

Gaynon thinks Brimsek may go to Chicago Black Hawks for either Doug Bentley or Billy Mosienko. Such a trade would cost the Hawks a top star, he says but they can be a power-ful factor" with Brimsek in goal.

"I Remember Darrah"

CALGARY, Aug. 27.—One of the paying customers seated within earshot of the press-box in Buffalo Stadium took to talking about Doug Darrah along about the sixth inning.

"Remember Darrah when he pitched for a service club here during the war?" he asked of another boobird alongside. "He had absolutely no confidence in himself."

Well, the slim moundsman who took his first pitching steps down around Vikings, had plenty of confidence as he chopped down "Lefty" Wilson's Purity gang here Thursday night.

As well he had a useful curveball and when catcher-manager Ed Morris asked him for it—a fast one that made most of the Wilsonmen go to whiffing the breeze or take the pop-up way out.

And because Darrah struck the mother lode right off the bat Eskimos are in a spot where they can look upon the immediate future with considerable enthusiasm. In any short series tight pitching can easily be the arm that yanks the handle for the jack pot.

Ed Belter is scheduled to work the second game on Friday. If he also manhandles the Puritys these two tough righthanders, Clarence Mellbye and Jerry Seaman will be primed to finish the job in Edmonton.

Morris will have only one misgiving as he waves Belter to the firing line tomorrow. As he puts it: "Belter is inclined to have these ears (rabbit ears). He hears everything that's said in the stands because they come down so close to the playing field in Buffalo Stadium.

"Sometimes the hecklers get to him, throw him off stride.

★ ★ ★ ★

Morris 'Steals' First Base

Otherwise Morris is plenty high on what the little southpaw has in the way of a pitching repertoire. Particularly he likes the Belter spirit towards his diamond chores.

"He'd pitch every game if I let him," Morris assured.

A painter by trade, Belter might just be of a mind Friday to do a white-wash job on Puritys.

Manager Morris was in high fettle all through the opener. He found time to question several of base-umpire Harry Perell's decisions and jaw back and forth with the fans seated behind the Eskimos dugout. When he reached first base in the ninth inning after coaxing a base-on-balls off Jack Mills he found the sack had come away from its moorings. The Esk mentor promptly kicked it halfway down the path towards second base and took up a triumphant position astride it.

There was some confusion when the Purity infield discovered him so far off "base" and a disposition to stage a run-down, until the whereabouts of first base was ascertained.

But in between times Morris was all business. He's quite popular with Buffalo Stadium fans.

John Beatty is on hand to take care of the road secretary's oft onerous duties. As well executives of Purity and Buffalo teams are looking for Henry Roche, league president, to pop down, probably in time for the second contest.

"Old Sam" Burnt to a Crisp

Sam Timmins, whose Buffaloes dropped the duke to Esks in the semi-final round, was early at the stadium to greet the customers. Mr. Timmins is anything but happy about league affairs as the season draws to a close.

For one thing he's quite certain the Edmonton entries in the circuit have been getting all the best of any committee room differences that have arisen over the past two seasons. One gathers that "Old Sam"—as the Buff business manager frequently refers to himself—wants assurance that some changes are in the cards for next season.

"All we've been doing in this league is making certain that Ducey and Beatty live," he maintained Friday, with considerable heat.

A league meeting is to be held shortly after the playoffs conclude. Almost certainly there will be fireworks. For if "Old Sam" is burning up inside over alleged injustices to the Calgary entries it's equally true that Messrs. Ducey and Beatty aren't entirely happy over some of the goings-on of Timmins and associates.

In fact we would suggest that President Roche lay in a big supply of aspirins. He may have quite the headache before all is serene again in Big Four circles.

EXPERIENCING THE THRILL that comes once in a lifetime, Bruce Clarke, champion of the Bulletin's Woodenface competition, is seen with members of the Eskimos before boarding the train for Calgary to meet Purity 99. Bruce brought the Edmontonians luck, too, for they defeated the Calgarians 10-1 in the playoff opener. Manager Eddie Morris is shown with his hand on Bruce's shoulder.

CNR Whitewashed 8-0 By McGregor

By DICK BEDDOES

CNR 0, Canadians 8

If Tommy McGregor has an open date on his calendar while the building boom lasts he might secure employment in the whitewashing trade. At least, you might say the young Canadian pitcher is qualified for a union card in the business after his demonstration at Renfrew Park on Thursday night.

For in nine frosty innings the black-haired righthander blanked CNR on three hits, while his mates were battering the freight gang for an 8-0 victory.

And now the best-of-seven junior baseball final is all snarled up at 1-1. CNR won the first game by a 10-2 margin.

The juniors go into their third battle tonight at 8:00 o'clock and will continue the series Saturday at the same hour. Fifth game is scheduled for 3:00 p.m. Sunday afternoon.

THE CRYING TOWELS

After the Canucks lost the first match so decisively a lot of folks got out the crying towels and moaned about the pennant winners having lost their keen edge. And manager Gordon Moore was prompted to ask: "Whither are we drifting?"

Offhand, you would have said the Redlegs were drifting right out of the championship picture.

But McGregor changed all that. He got some help, of course, in the form of 11 solid base hits, but Thomas was the key to locking up the series at a game each. Only Glen Bjarnessen, Jeff Barnes, and Gus Emberg tagged him for safe hops, and he struck out five.

A parade of four CNR pitchers tried to stem the tide. But the Canadians got to two of these—Don Simon and Hal Pruden—for three runs in the third inning.

As it developed that was all the scoring support McGregor required. But his mates got him one run in the fourth, three in the sixth, and one in the ninth for good measure.

Denny Smith, Colin Shaw, Doug Hingrose, Don Bailey, and McGregor rapped two singles each and Len Karlson contributed a double to the hitting attack. Karlson also came up with two brilliant catches in the shortstop area.

CNR pitching was shaky. Simon, Pruden, Bob Sabourin and Wally Ursuliak allowed 11 bases on balls between them, and Sabourin had the unhappy experience of walking in two of the three Canadian runs in the sixth.

The game was not without its rabble rousing exhibitions. In the fifth CNR Catcher Gus Emberg took exception to several remarks passed in the Canadian dugout about his appearance. He dashed to the fence in front and hopped second baseman Denny Smith and was thumbed from the contest by umpire Hal Callihan for activity not akin to baseball.

Champs and 10-Second Man Feature Track and Field

Two 1947 champions will be among the competitors in the provincial interscholastic track and field meet at Clarke Stadium Saturday, but the big attraction is likely to be a 10-second sprinter in the 100-yard dash.

The champions are both ladies—Doris Nafer and Doreen McLeod—and the sprinter is Ivan Head.

Nafer won the intermediate girls' aggregate 12 months ago and was awarded the Moose Heart Legion (Wetaskiwin) Trophy. McLeod topped the junior girls and received the Loyal Order of Moose (Wetaskiwin) Trophy.

But Head is the athlete the grandstand sprinters will have their eyes on.

HEAD IS THE MAN

The young speedster, a member of the Edmonton Polo Bear Club, ran the century in 10 seconds at Calgary's Highland Games on August 7. That mark is considered an unofficial provincial record for 100 yards, but has not been ratified by the records committee of the Alberta Amateur Union.

Head will get his chance to equal or better that mark at 1:30 Saturday afternoon. And there will likely be a lot of stop watches timing his dash to the tape that day.

OTHER COMPETITORS

Other local competitors in the meet are Ellen Nielsen, Mona Creighton, Nancy Armstrong, Annie Shaborowsky, Maurice Hoyd, Harold Riddell, Sylvia Calder, Nora Olson, Paula Olson, Pat Waddington, Doris Reid, Bob Christy, Casey Tracy, Maurice Phalempin, Don Monteriefl, and Grant Martin.

Among the visiting athletes will be Jim Lentz, Vegreville; Marg Joyal, St. Albert; Pat Parker, Red Deer; Jack Hadley, Stettler; Bob Ledingham, Calgary; Bill Pidruchney, Vegreville; and Milton Tanzinger, Fervstosh.

The list of officials reads like a page out of the telephone book and includes R. W. Bellamy, Juanita Lawrence, Roy Hollaburton, Lloyd Frith, Bob Barlow, John Hall, Don Murray, Nellie Holmstrom, Hugh Monroe, and Doug Mitchell.

But the busiest man on the meet to date has been A. L. Lawrence, who has organized everything from purchasing the blank carridges to be used in the starter's pistol to laying out the official program.

Pittsburgh Protest Is Upheld

NEW YORK, Aug. 27. — (AP) — President Ford C. Frick of the National League Thursday upheld the protest of the Pittsburgh club involving its game Wednesday with Brooklyn at Pittsburgh, and ordered the game replayed from the point of the rule violation.

The replay will be held Tuesday Sept. 21, at Ebbets Field, Brooklyn, with the same players on the field and the situation otherwise identical to that at the point of the rule infraction.

In the last of the ninth inning of Wednesday's game, with Brooklyn leading 11-9 and Carl Erskine pitching for the Dodgers with two man out, Erskine ran the count to three balls and one strike on his first opposing batter, pinch-hitter Eddie Brockman.

The protest was based on a violation of Rule 17, Section 4 which provides that a pitcher coming into the mound shall continue to pitch until the player at bat has either been put out or has reached first base, or the side has been retired.

Argos-Beaches Match Certain To Be 'Hot'

TORONTO, Aug. 27.—(CP)—The opening game of the 1948 football season in Toronto may well go down in local gridiron annals as "operation sweat."

The padded Behemoths from the Toronto teams — Argonauts and Beaches Indians—learned Thursday from the weatherman that they can look for temperatures in the 90s for their charity exhibition game Saturday. Before it's over, they may wish they had taken up water polo.

Many of the Beaches Indians, Toronto's entry in the Ontario Rugby Football Union, should be well on the way to mid-season form. They returned this week from a three-game exhibition foray into Western Canada where they defeated Regina and Winnipeg entries in the West's senior union, but lost to Calgary 16-7.

Beaches may need that competitive seasoning to match the Argos, the city's Big Four entry and Dominion champions. With big Joe Krol and Royal Copeland back in the fold along with their tough line, the Argos still rate in most circles as the team to beat for the Canadian title.

The Beaches club was formed by an amalgamation of the Balmy Beach and Indian teams of last season. Coached by sport columnist Ted Reeve, the team promises to be better than either the Balmy Beach or Indian clubs of last year. They've got most of the players from last year's teams and have put the snatch on another star or two as well. They have size and experience along the wingline, speed and skill in the backfield.

Pats to Battle Anavets Saturday

Oliver St. Pats and Anavets will clash Saturday night at Clarke Stadium in a Dragoons Cup soccer match that promises to be closely fought all the way.

George Hall, secretary, requests that the following Pats make an appearance at the Stadium at 7 p.m.: Shaw, G. Davidson, S. Davidson, Hamilton, Johnson, Turner, Wade, Innes, Hoskins, Weir, Mason, Britt and James.

Southpaw Tourney Set For Sept. 12

Attention Edmonton southpaws! The Alberta championship for golfers who swing from the port side will be held at the Bowness Golf course in Calgary Sept. 12.

Ward Steckle, director of physical education in Calgary, was an Edmonton visitor yesterday and announced that anyone wishing to play in the annual event could do so by writing him in care of the Calgary School Board.

N. EDMONTON JUVENILES OFF TO BARRHEAD

Ben Klingspoon has his city juvenile baseball champions from North Edmonton primed to play the Barrhead juveniles at Barrhead Sunday afternoon. The North Edmonton gang won the city title two weeks ago from Westmount and have planned barnstorming trips throughout the north to round out the season.

Confident NS Legion Heads South Saturday

A confident band of Edmonton soccer players will head for Calgary Saturday to defend their Alberta Football Association championship.

They are the North Side Legion and they'll take with them a 5-1 lead over Callies in the second of the two-game, total-point series. The Legionnaires gained that margin in the first match here Saturday night.

"I think we've got the cup in the bag, but we're not going down there with that thought in mind. We're going to play as if we are behind in the series, just to avoid over-confidence," said Manager Martin Collingwood as he announced the party making the trip.

Callies, who had only lost one game all season till they bumped into the Legion crew Saturday, gave a fine display of soccer in the first half, but faded badly in the second stanza.

Collingwood announced that the following would make the trip: Bill Xess; George Dempster, Harry Skidmore; George Ross, Dave Pescod, Jimmy Anderson; Jack Wiles, Bob Graham, Dave Gillings, Bill Thomas, Dune Campbell, Ed Humble, Scotty Russell, Bob Scott, Jimmy Frew, Martin Collingwood, Dune McLean, secretary, Jim Mitchell, trainer, and Gibb Scott, a member of the executive.

Collingwood was happy to announce that all the players were in tip top shape.

Josephine Bonaparte introduced the custom of daily baths with soap in Europe.

CANADIAN LOOKS TO KENTUCKY DERBY

VANCOUVER, Aug. 27. — (CP) — F. Ronald Graham, wealthy Vancouver sportsman, has plans for the 1949 Kentucky Derby.

His trainer, Wally Dunn, is on his way by plane to Ireland today where he has orders to purchase an outstanding Irish two-year-old named Rathmore.

Friends here said Graham is determined to try for the Derby next May with Rathmore.

Graham is the owner of top-rated Mafosta, Maslie and Plover, all imported runners belonging to his Montrose stable.

YOUNG HURLER WINS 16th STRAIGHT GAME

OKLAHOMA CITY, Aug. 27. — (AP) — Buddy Young, 18-year-old rookie pitching sensation of the Sooner State Baseball League, was credited Thursday with his 16th straight victory of 1948.

And—for the record—that is every game Buddy has pitched since he entered organized baseball this year with the McAlester Rockets.

The win was officially credited to Young Thursday by Eddie Miller, league statistician.

Miller said Buddy was determined the winner of a game at Lawton Aug. 19, first awarded to relief pitcher Rockey Shaneck who took over when Buddy was tossed out of the game by Umpire Carl Burke for bickering over a decision.

Doerr's 3-Run Homer Puts Red Sox On Top

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.— (CP)— Unassuming, workmanlike Bobby Doerr, Boston Red Sox second baseman whose fielding is well-nigh perfect, proved once again yesterday that he's a dangerous man with a bat.

His three-run homer gulded Boston into first place in the American League with an 8-4 triumph over Cleveland Indians. The loss dropped the Cleveland club into second place by a half-game.

Doerr walloped his circuit clout, his 24th, in the eighth inning with two out. Johnny Pesky, who had batted safely, and Ted Williams, who had singled to right, scored ahead of the Sox second sacker.

YANKS ADVANCE

At New York, the Yankees advanced to within a half game of second place and to within a game of first by beating the last-place Chicago White Sox, 6-1.

Trailing 2-1, going into the last of the eighth inning, the Yankees exploded for five runs to pull the game out of danger.

Ralph Hodgin knocked in both Chicago runs.

Pete Suder's two-run double in the eighth inning at Philadelphia gave the Athletics a 4-3 decision over the Detroit Tigers and snapped a five-game losing streak.

Hal Newhouser, Detroit's ace southpaw, was charged with the defeat although Suder's hit came off relief pitcher Art Houtteman.

At Washington, the Senators scored an 8-7 victory over St. Louis Browns when Ed Stewart squeezed Al Kozar across the plate in the ninth inning with the winning counter.

Over in the national, the Chicago Cubs gave Boston Braves a double join in their pennant drive Thursday when they swept a doubleheader, 5-1 and 5-2.

BRAVES' EDGE CUT

It cut the Braves' first-place margin three games over Brooklyn.

At Cincinnati, the Brooklyn Dodgers humbled the Reds for the first time in 17 meetings as lefty Joe Hatten pitched the Dodgers to a 6-3 triumph.

Hatten gave up seven hits, two of them coming in the second inning when the Reds scored their lone run. The Dodgers took the lead in the fourth on Pee Wee Reese's two-run homer off starting and losing pitcher Ken Peterson.

Meanwhile, the Pittsburgh Pirates bounced back into the first division as they swept a doubleheader from the slumping Philadelphia Phils, 11-4 and 4-0. The Quaker losing streak was stretched to nine.

At St. Louis, the Cardinals shattered a six-game New York winning streak as little Murray Dickson pitched the Red Birds to a 7-0 triumph over the Giants in the first game of a day-night doubleheader.

Dickson limited the Giants on three hits over the first six innings, but then eased up.

In the second game, Stan Musial's 32nd home run with a man on base broke a 5-5 ninth inning tie and enabled the Cardinals to win 7-5.

Hudson's Bay Makes Mom Feel Like Modern Cinderella

MODERN CINDERELLA Mrs. Anna Anholt shopped for a complete head-to-toe outfit, courtesy of the Hudson's Bay Company, Thursday afternoon. This lovely Mom, winner of The Bulletin-Capitol Theatre Loveliest Mother contest, was excited as any of her six young'uns would have been as she tried on her fashion-wise new wardrobe. Laurette Riopel, Bay saleswoman, shares Mrs. Anholt's enthusiasm as they find perfect-fit suit for the lucky Mom.

SWISH NEW HAT is a wonderful treat for any clothes-conscious woman. And when it's all part of a beautiful new Turtle Green ensemble—who could ask for anything more?

POWERS MODELS wouldn't look any nicer than our lovely Mom when she's decked out in complete array of finery. Everything from silky, lacey, lingeries to smooth, elegant matching gloves and handbag are hers.

BUSINESS OF BEAUTY continues and Hudson's Bay Company treat our lovely mother to a relaxing facial, manicure, and stylized hair-do. Gertrude Todd, manager of the Bay beauty salon, wields the comb with Mrs. Anholt's fine, pretty light brown hair. It's a big day for our lovely mother. Choosing a complete new outfit, from skin out, is a big job. Said the pretty mom, "I feel like Alice in Wonderland and Cinderella."

Medicineman Addley Is One Of Many Market Attractions

By HAROLD DELANY

Fifty-nine-year-old Reginald Addley has had a stall at Edmonton's farmers' market for 29 years.

And since seats are few, the Addley feet have had a trying three decades supporting their owner's generous 260 pounds, while he has been purveying pain-killing liquids and novelties.

It is only appropriate, that his best-seller—one which he heartily endorses—it a patent corn cure.

The veteran spieler, whose rotund figure is one of the landmarks to the thousands who throng the market, says he might have retired long ago if it hadn't been for the regular use of his own product.

Addley may be seen any weekday at the front portion of the market.

Saturday, he moves his stand well inside.

Reason for the one-day change is, that years ago, Saturday-stall operators, at the rear of the building, demanded that he move back, on he grounds that he interfered with their business.

SALES AFFECTED

They claimed that his display, and engaging line of chatter drew such crowds that the passageway became blocked and their sales were affected.

The charge that his voice was so magnetic, pleased the aging salesman so much that he didn't mind moving a bit. He considered it a tribute to his arduous, self-training in voice, which he had carried on over a lifetime of selling.

Born in Levis, Quebec, Addley's first job was selling newspapers.

Following that he became a CPR dining-car waiter, and it was on one of his western runs that he dropped off at Edmonton, where he has been ever since.

From that time until he opened his stand at the market, he followed the fairs regularly as carnival pitch-man.

This was where he picked up all the tricks, which have made him such a successful seller of what he jocularly refers to as "snake-oil."

"But I have never," he says, "like many pitchmen of old, made false claims for the remedies I sell."

Apart from the corn-cure which Addley imports from the United States, his leading item is a liniment which he developed himself. With the snakily, oily title of Waukega Penetrating Oil" it is highly reminiscent of the old medicine-man days.

Other original products, which their inventor markets as Addley Specialties, are a liquid cement and a metal solder.

It is a demonstration of the cement that makes the passer-by stop at the Addley stall. Hanging from a stand is a dinner plate which has been broken apart and then cemented. Supported by a string tied through a hole in the plate is a 30-pound piec of iron.

Another eyecatcher which stops many a parent at his child's request, is a large bundle of balloons-on-a-stick. Of course, when the dutiful parents stop, they are immediately told of the benefits to be derived from the Addley products.

Optimists Plan Heavy Season In Boys' Work

Plans for boys' work, to be undertaken by the Optimists' Club, were discussed at the luncheon meeting of the club Thursday in the Macdonald Hotel.

The boys' work committee of the club indicated that it is planning one of the most active yeaers in history and has included plans for improvement of recreation facilities for boys at the South Side Detention Home.

J. P. Riley, of the City of Edmonton Recreation Commission, spoke briefly on progress being made with Boys' Work in the city.

Plans for the annual March of Dimes, to raise funds for the club's service activities, were also discussed.

Doughnuts were introduced into England from France in 1396.

Driver Dismissed On License Charge

Charges against Peter Novoleski, no fixed address, alleging breaches of the Vehicle and Highway Traffic Act, were dismissed Thursday in city police court.

Novoleski was charged with being in possession of a fictitious driver's license, purporting to belong to "J. P. Anderson", and with failing to have a driver's license.

The charges were dismissed when Magistrate A. L. Millar ruled that the Crown had failed to produce evidence showing Novoleski was not known as "J. P. Anderson."

Geiger Counters Featured At Fair

TORONTO, Aug. 27.—(CP)—Chattering Geiger counters, which register the presence of radioactive ores, are featured at this year's exhibit of the Ontario Department of Mines at the Canadian National Exhibition.

A huge map, 67 feet long and 12 feet high, with the principal mining camps of northern Ontario highlighted, forms a background for the display.

In Saskatoon

SASKATOON, Aug. 27.—In a candlelight wedding ceremony in Alliance Tabernacle recently Verna Mary Ardell became the bride of Norman William Dreger. The Rev R. F. Merrill performed the doubleing ceremony.

Iris and gladioli decorated the church and the guest pews were marked with pink ribbon.

Housewifely Cocoon Yields Glamour Gal

By Bea Thrifty

Fairy Godmother has been doing right by Mrs. Anna Anholt, winner of the Bulletin-Capitol Loveliest Mother contest.

From Mrs. Average Housewife to Mrs. Glamour Queen in one wonderful afternoon of shopping at the Hudson's Bay Company department store.

The Bay outfitted the charmingly natural, unaffected Cinderella from head to toe . . . from the skin out.

And even the skin gets a new look when Mom Anholt emerged from the Bay beauty salon after a facial, hair-do, manicure and the works.

The wonderful, sleek-fitting turtle green three piece suit was breath-takingly perfect.

Aint the accessories . . . "It's all a beautiful dream," said the excited mother of half a dozen children.

A swish hat of matching green, elegant smooth leather shoes of the same shade . . . and a bit of contrast with a milk-chocolate bag and gloves.

Stockings, glamour pin, everything.

Ah . . . but those lacy unmentionables. They did my heart good. And think how Mrs. Anholt loves them. You don't have many pennies left over for proud can be on their "favorite six mouths to feed.

She's a lovely mother and her handsome family is proud as proud can be of their "favorite gal."

From mothers to moonshine roses, perfume . . . and have you tried the perfumed nail polish.

Comes in a variety of colors and sells for less than a dollar.

Saw some sleepy-time clothes today in soft, wearable printed rayon material.

They are the shortie-fashioneo and sell for $3.98.

There's a nasty, vicious rumor that street-car transportation is climbing another notch to austerity.

Let me see now . . . in order to make that nil budget balance we're going to have to do without a powerful lot of things.

All God's Chillun Got Shoes . . . but this chillun could certainly use a new pair . . . preferably a pair of the zooty new diagonal ankle strap jobs.

But that clothing allowance . . . ohhhh shoes, like steaks, are a tremendous price these days, but we still have to wear them.

Wouldn't mind having a pair like Lovely Mother Anholt. Hers are those starkly plain dark turtle pelts with the slight platform sole . . . very nice indeed.

WHY GROW OLD

Courage Required To Begin Reduction Diet

By Josephine Lowman

Today I am going to print parts of several letters from women who entered my Eight Weeks' Self-Improvement Marathon which ran last January. All of the letters used today come from women who had a lot of weight to lose.

Starting out on a program of reduction when one is very much overweight, takes a lot of courage. Usually, the more weight a woman gains the less likely she is to do anything about it. She becomes completely discouraged and gives up dreams of regaining her former slim figure.

No. 1—"I have just finished your Eight Weeks' Self-Improvement Marathon. I am 30 years old, 5 feet, 9½ inches tall. When I started I weighed 220 pounds. I now weigh 199 pounds. I have lost all over. I am well-proportioned, just fat. I am going to continue until I weigh the right number of poundds.

"I have two boys in school, do all of my work, even my washing and ironing, and work nine hours every day at an outside job. I feel so much better since I lost this 21 pounds that I am not like the same person. I had not had a good night's sleep in two years but now I sleep well. Please send me special help for the shoulders and waist."

A salute to this reader, who found time for self-improvement in the midst of such a busy life!

No. 2—"I just want to tell you how I am doing on your diet and exercise program. In January, 1948, I made myself a promise to lose 100 pounds this year. When I started I weighed 289 pounds. In four months I have lost 48 pounds. I have a long way to go yet, but I have a good start, and am going to stick with it."

Good! You can and will, I know! One pupil I know personally lost 100 pounds in one year's time. She dieted carefully and exercised constantly. Her face didn't have a line in it at the end of her reducing period.

At my suggestion, she had taken facial exercises and had been most careful about skin lubrication. These two ideas will be beneficial to all women who are going to lose a large amount of weight. Also, when you are very heavy, it is especially important to have a physical checkup to be sure that exercise is safe for you.

No. 3—"I sent for your Eight Week's Self-Improvement Marathon a little over a year ago. At that time I weighed 210 pounds. Today I tip the scales at 138 pounds. I look at least twenty years younger."

Congratulations!

No. 4—"I started on your marathon January 22nd. By March 22nd I had lost 25 pounds I am still losing and hope to drop another 10 pounds during the next month. I feel much better and have plenty to eat, too. I weighed 225 pounds when I started."

Don't these letters make those of you ashamed, who have only 10 or 15 or 20 pounds to lose?

If you would like to have a routine which will help you reduce successfully, send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 1, "General Reducing Routine", to Josephine Lowman in care of this newspaper.

No Russ Warships Off Malta Island

LONDON, Aug. 27.—(CP)—The Admiralty yesterday discounted a report that five Russian warships had been sighted about nine miles off Malta and had refused to answer signals. The Admiralty said that the "warships" were five unarmed Russian trawlers which had "been there for some time."

YOUR BABY AND MINE

Children Often Waddle For Easier Walking

By Myrtle Meyer Eldred

Babies change the way they walk many times before they grow up. It is not uncommon for a small child, just learning to walk, to turn the feet out like a paper, cutout doll.

He will hold his legs far apart and waddle, all for better balance.

Sometimes, instead of turning them out he turns his feet in and walks pigeon-toed. Neither of these habits is particularly unfortunate in these early days as both should be temporary only. While the correct way to walk is to toe straight ahead, it is probable that until the muscles grow strong and walking becomes an easy skill, children will tend to turn the toes noticeably out or in.

A child may come into the world with one ankle that turns in or out. One must assume that this is the result of a cramped position in the uterus and it will be outgrown when the muscles have had exercise and are stronger.

Certain habits of sleeping, especially on the stomach, may incline the child to turn the toes toward each other. This may make the

DOROTHY DIX SAYS—

Divorced Wife Finds New Peace of Mind

DEAR MISS DIX—After thirty years of what I supposed to be a successful marriage my husband announced to me that he had fallen in love with a girl twenty years younger than he was, and that he wanted a divorce so he could marry her.

I agreed as I did not want to be an unwanted wife, and I have gotten along much better than I thought I would without him.

Our old friends all stuck by me, and his new ones and his bride are pretty much left to themselves, and I hear that the going is rough for him in his business and that my firm is about to go on the rocks.

I do not try to help punish them for the wrong they did to me, for I can go securely on my way, living the life I want to without having to consider the wishes of an exacting man.

I have a peace of mind that is far beyond my expectations, and I believe that as time goes on I will find even more peace and satisfaction. When a man throws away his married love for that of a new wife after as many years together as we had, he is not worth grieving over.

MRS. M. H.

ANSWER: I hope this letter from a wise and brave wife will be read by the thousands of women who are breaking their hearts over the dastardly husbands who forsook them for girls young enough to be their daughters.

If there is one time in life when Fate metes out a punishment to fit the crime, it is when a man throws off a faithful old wife for a young avaricious girl.

For the old man's passion soon cools. He belongs to one generation and she belongs to another and they have nothing in common, so they bore each other to tears.

While as for the girl, all she married for was to get the things that money buys.

Teaching In England Wonderful Experience

Garden Parties at Palace, Shopping In Paris: Home Was Never Like This

By Frances Geddes

Everything from attending garden parties at Buckingham Palace to buying clothes in Paris has made the past year pretty busy for Veronica Davies of Edmonton.

Miss Davies has been an exchange teacher from McDougall Commercial School in Edmonton to Eastcote Lane, a school for girls in Harrow, Middlesex, England.

Seeing England for the first time, Miss Davies found herself at the end of her visit thinking in terms of that country and speaking of herself and the English as "we".

But she didn't settle down and live a normal life at all—weekends and holidays were too busy.

Her most exciting experience was being presented to Queen Elizabeth. Naturally, she was thrilled—but not nervous. "So much was happening, we would have accepted almost anything in our stride," she says.

She saw Princess Elizabeth on her wedding day from Trafalgar Square. She and other exchange teachers were invited to a Buckingham Palace garden party and to see the state procession of the opening of Parliament.

They were also entertained at the House of Commons by the MP for Harrow.

She travelled to Wales, Scotland, all over England and to Paris. "I was terribly afraid Paris wouldn't be wonderful, but it's exciting and glamorous," she said, "I was certainly the eager tourist."

Just to prove the world isn't so large, Miss Davies met Edmontonians Dr. and Mrs. W. G. Hardy in Paris.

Something special was seeing the fountains playing in the Place de la Concorde. Shortage of water makes this event unlikely.

Miss Davies liked teaching in England. She had to get used to a different system of education. Students are graded and put into classes according to ability, from A to D. This is fine when one is teaching the A students but gets a little hard on the teacher as she goes down.

Water Reserves Depleted By Heat

TORONTO, Aug. 27. — (CP) — Water in Trafalgar township, a few miles west of Toronto near Oakville, was shut off yesterday because excessive heat depleted water reserves. Among large estates on the Lake Ontario shore affected by the shortage is Ballymena, home of Ontario Lieut.-Governor Ray Lawson.

Thru the LOOKING GLASS

by DOLORES KENDALL

Canadian fashions are fashions in the news.

Most imported garments, if good quality and style, are sold at a price well beyond the reach of Mrs. Average Woman.

Canadian designers are building a reputation for themselves in the world of fashion. Domestic manufacturers concentrate on the clothes that will sell . . . trying to avoid the extremes of style, because of the reluctance on the part of Canadians, particularly westerners, to accept too highly stylized clothes.

In other words, Canadian designers are attempting to match the pace of their development with the wants and needs of Canadian women.

This past three-year period, when the pendulum of fashion has moved back and forth with amazing vigor, has proved that Canadian fashions can hold their own.

With the exaggerated styles of the "New Look" falling by the wayside, our designers adopt a smug, satisfied look and proceed to produce their modified, and therefore top, 48 style versions.

This doesn't mean that Canadian clothes are too conservative, too lacking in color, subtle draping, elegance, glamour.

This means rather the clothes are designed with an easy wearability that fits the limited budgets of most Canadian women.

Montreal, Toronto and Vancouver are fashion centres. But Canada. Gowns, suits, coats, evening wear labelled from manufacturers in these cities are considered top style and top quality.

For many years Canadian textile manufacturers lacked the ingenuity in their dye colors. But now they provide an entire spectrum of colors for the manufacturer.

This season dark, shimmering greens and rich claret wines share the color spotlight. Suits, frocks, coats, can be had in these delightfully flattering shades.

And true to the dictates of the fashions accessories are available in matching shades.

Elegant shoes, handbags and gloves are filling the stores, and in such an assortment of rich, fruity shades.

Lois Belyea Entertained

Bride-elect of September 4, Miss Lois Belyea was honored Thursday from 3 to 6 p.m. when her mother, Mrs. Albert P. C. Belyea entertained at tea.

Pink and white flowers were used throughout the rooms and the table was centred with a bowl of pink sweet peas flanked by tall, white tapers.

Mrs. J. A. Buchanan and Mrs. Donald Carter showed guests to the dining room where Mrs. J. W. Shera and Mrs. R. H. Johnston were in charge.

Pouring were Mrs. Edmund Frowebridge, Mrs. R. L. Heard, Mrs. William Chinneck, Mrs. A. W. Haddow, Mrs. Conrad Geggie and Mrs. R. F. Sutton.

Assisting in serving were Mrs. William Hutchinson, Mrs. Bruce Wilson, Mrs. Walter Anderson, Mrs. Owen Blake, Mrs. H. Maddison, Miss Phyllis Sutton, Miss Margaret Warren, Miss Sheila Mackintosh, Miss Alice Munroe and Miss Eleanor Munroe.

Honored With Trousseau Tea

Miss Jean Fraser, who is to be married Tuesday to Donald R. Castle, was honored this afternoon when her mother, Mrs. James M. Fraser entertained at a trousseau tea, she will receive again this evening.

For the occasion, their home was decorated with gladioli and zinnias in various shades. The tea table was set with ecru lace and centred with a silver bowl of sweet peas. Tall tapers in silver candelabra completed table arrangements.

Receiving the 65 guests, Mrs. Fraser was in black crepe with satin trim and wore a corsage of fuchsia gladioli and cream roses.

The bride-elect chose a paisley silk with which she wore a corsage of white gladioli and Talisman roses.

Presiding at the tea-urns during the afternoon were Mrs. Arnold Tayler and Mrs. William Little. Mrs. Ray Hay and Mrs. William Hansford will pour this evening.

OIL

Search Follows Historic Route

By Cecil Jackman

The vast Athabasca valley which was the historic route of the fur trade is today playing host to three magnetometer crews in search of a different kind of wealth. Men are using the river transportation in their oil exploration of 4,000,000 acres to avoid the densely wooded country lining the valley from Athabasca landing to the railhead at Waterways.

This is the first time that a Canadian river has been used so extensively as a means of transportation for an oil exploration program. Backers of the program hope that it will be possible to get two months of river survey in before freeze-up.

LOGICAL LOCATION

While the occurrence of the tar sands which are found as far up stream as Pelican Rapids is the main reason for believing that liquid crude may be found along the river, it is also noted that the area is between the coral reef fields at Leduc and Norman Wells and the outcropping of the tar sand at Waterways.

There is a coral outcropping on the Clearwater river which empties into the Athabasca at Waterways. The evidence makes the area reserved along the river and railway look like two sides of the best location in the province for an oil exploration program.

FERRY IS INSTALLED

Roads have been graded down to the Saskatchewan river ready for the installation of a ferry to facilitate movement of personnel and equipment between the Woodbend and Leduc fields. Plans for the construction of the conveyance were formulated last May. The cost is being shared by Imperial Oil and the provincial government.

It is expected that the cement plug at Atlantic west relief well will be drilled today. When this is done the hole will be deepened from the green shale to the gas cap of the D3 zone and down to the level of the bottom of the rogue well. Flooding operations will then be started.

Last reported depth at Imperial Ardrossan No. 1 was 4,505 feet. The hole is rumored to have found the equivalent of the Leduc D2 zone 1,100 feet higher than at Leduc and full of sulphur water. The porosity is said to have been well developed. Depth at Redwater was 2,898 feet. Spirit River was at 2,405 feet.

Industrial Stocks Display Firmness

Papers and Liquors Move Up; Home, Atlantic Oil Gainers

TORONTO, Aug. 27.—(CP)—Prices were mixed and irregular as trading slackened on the Toronto Stock Exchange today. Industrials showed a slightly firmer tone and golds dipped slowly. Base metals were steady and western oils down. Volume was about 396,000 shares.

Papers and liquors edged ahead in the industrial groupings on fractional advances. Steels and utilities were steady.

Maple Leaf Milling and Massey-Harris advanced ⅛ in the agricultural group. Ford A, Goodyear and Canadian Western Lumber firmed in the miscellaneous industrials.

Senior Golds led the easier trend in the gold list. Juniors mixed gains and losses. Dome, Kerr Addison and Lake Shore weakened fractionally in the seniors and Teck-Hughes and Wright Hargreaves showed penny losses. Aunor, Cochenour, East Malartic, Macassa and Upper Canada dipped from 1 to 5 cents. Chesterville, Hallnor, Eldona and Louvicourt were among stronger secondard golds.

Eureka, Base Metals Corp., International Uranium, Normetal and Sherritt were down on small losses in the sluggish base metals list. Pend Oreille, East Sullivan, Consolidated Smelters, New Calumet and Silanco strengthened.

Increased Hedging Sends Futures Lower

WINNIPEG, Aug. 27.—(CP)—The coarse grains futures market on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange showed an easier tone today, reflecting increased hedging sales. New crop deliveries established a new high for the current season.

In oats some fairly good trade was noted, largely attributed to American accounts and shippers interests. The shipper interests also were present in the barley market, although activity was inclined to be quieter than in the oats' field. Hedging sales were prominent in rye, American interests also coming to the fore. Some selling activated the flax market, with buying done mainly for seaport accounts.

No export trade in wheat was reported.

BRIDGE
Jump-Shift Bidding Is a Game Demand

By William E. McKenney

This is the fifth of a series of articles based on Fred L. Karpin's booklet, "The Point-Count System of Bidding in Contract Bridge."

In today's article we deal entirely with the jump-shift bid on the part of the original bidder. We all know that a jump-shift bid by partner is a game demand bid; but expert players do not always treat that type of bid by the original bidder as an absolute game demand, although I think they should.

North: ♠Q 7 2 (2); ♥J 8 4 (1); ♦6 5 3 (0); ♣A 7 6 2 (4) — 7
West: ♠J 8 6 4; ♥9 6 3; ♦K 8 2; ♣K 9 5
East: ♠A 10 9 3; ♥10 5; ♦9 7 4; ♣Q J 10 8
South (Dealer): ♠K 5 (3); ♥A K Q 7 2 (10); ♦A Q J 10 (7); ♣4 3 (0) — 20

Tournament—Neither vul.

South	West	North	East
1 ♥	Pass	1 N.T.	Pass
3 ♦	Pass	3 ♥	Pass
4 ♥	Pass	Pass	Pass

Opening—♠ 4 27

In this hand, South has a count of 20 points—three for the king of spades, 10 for the ace-king-queen of hearts and the fifth heart, and seven for the ace-queen-jack of diamonds. He opens the bidding with one heart, and his partner makes the minimum response of one no trump, for which he must have at least 6 points.

In the point-count system, a count of 26 points in the combined hands is needed for game. South has 20 and his partner has advertised at least 6. Therefore South must assure a game contract.

Karpin says in his booklet that a jump-shift rebid by the opening bidder is made on a hand which contains 19 or more points. It is true that with 19 points, if you find your partner with only 6, you will have a combined count of only 25 and occasionally the game will not be made. However, partner's minimum response may be based on 7, 8 or 9 points, so you should not be too pessimistic.

South, of course, does not have this problem in today's hand. He knows that the 26 points needed for game are in the combined hands. He bids three diamonds, telling partner that he holds at least 19 points and wants to go to game.

All North has to do is to select the suit, hearts or diamonds, or he could go to three no trump if he had good stoppers in spades and clubs and no support in hearts or diamonds. He selects three hearts and South goes to four hearts.

The only losers in the combined hands are a spade, a diamond and a club.

School Van Tenders

Tenders will be received up to Noon, September 11th, for the operation of a School Van starting at Uncas Station and thence due West on the North Cooking Lake Trail to Salisbury Store Corner. Estimated distance 14 miles. Estimated number of pupils 12.

IT'S 'FRY-DAY' IN WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27.—(BUP)—The news was hot today—the Washington Daily News, that is.

Its Page 1 masthead was set in what looked like melting type which appeared to be radiating shimmering heat waves.

Beneath the name were the words, "very-hot-weather edition . . . fry-day."

The banner was: "Worse today, the man says."

Inside, apropos the forecast that yesterday's 97.2 heat record will be topped by a sizzling 98 today, the news complained:

"The district weather men, sitting calmly in their air-conditioned rooms over at National airport, have cooked up the year's steamiest mess . . ."

1917 RAIL TICKET JUST USED
Trip Takes 31 Years —Also 'Takes the Cake'

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—(AP)—The New Haven Railroad is looking for one of its passengers who took 31 years to complete a 60-mile trip. It wants to give him a cake.

The railroad publicity office said the man boarded a New York-bound train at South Norwalk, Conn., a few days ago and handed the conductor a ticket bought in 1917 for a trip from Ridgefield, Conn., to New York.

It said the ticket had been punched for the ride from Ridgefield to Branchville, Conn., over a line which has since gone out of existence, and for the trip from Branchville to South Norwalk.

Conductor Dante L. Del Vecchio was so surprised that he failed to ask the passenger's name.

Anyhow, the railroad thinks his use of the ticket after 31 years "takes the cake," and thus wants to present him with one—if the railroad can find him.

Insurance Study Will Continue

Study of various forms of automobile insurance will be resumed "soon" by a legislative committee, appointed at the 1948 session of the Alberta legislature, Hon. A. J. Hooke, minister of economic affairs and committee chairman said today.

Members of the committee are Mr. Hooke, H. B. MacDonald (Ind., Calgary) and H. G. Hammell (SC, Didsbury). All three members of the committee were re-elected.

The committee was instructed to investigate and report on state insurance, both voluntary and compulsory.

One meeting was held in June.

Ruhr Coal Output At Post-War High

GENEVA, Switzerland, Aug. 27.—(AP)—Coal production in the Ruhr broke all post-war records in July and reached nearly 70 per cent of the pre-war average. Monthly statistics published yesterday by the Economic Commission for Europe showed that production continued to rise last month in all Europe's major producing countries except Britain and Belgium.

Trygve Lie Will Get Golden Key

PARIS, Aug. 27.—(Reuters)—Robert Schuman, French foreign minister, will hand a golden key to Trygve Lie, United Nations secretary-general, Sept. 1 to inaugurate an 11-acre "state within a state" for the UN General Assembly meeting here. French police will have no jurisdiction in the area.

Oil Worker Suffers Injury

An Edmonton man, John C. Edgar, 10521 84 street, was slightly injured Thursday while at work on a construction job at the Imperial Oil refinery, three miles east of the city.

Edgar is believed to have fallen from a low scaffolding, sustaining neck injuries.

He was taken to the University hospital by Hays Ambulance.
